Good Seed with Bad Seed

Dear Friend in Christ,

“The Jesus’ parable of the wheat and the weeds begins with a man sowing good seed in his field. But at night his enemy came and sowed tares, a particularly noxious weed almost impossible to distinguish from wheat in the early stages of growth. The malicious deed didn’t come to light until the plants matured and the difference began to show.

Has not the field of my life grown confusingly entangled with wheat and tares in the course of the years? What if, long ago, they had both been pulled up and burned before the good seed in me had had time to mature and show itself to be wheat?

“Jesus, remember me when you come into Your Kingdom,” the Good Thief asked his crucified companion from Nazareth as they drew their last breaths. With a discerning eye the Lord of the Harvest replied “This day you will be with Me in paradise.”

In Christ Jesus,
