

Living Christ Together...

Salvation in Hand

Dear Friend in Christ,

Jesus came to be handed over to sinners, and the handing-over began on that Silent Night in Bethlehem as the helpless babe passed from the arms of one astonished onlooker to another.

Jesus, Son of God and Son of Mary, hands Himself over to us so that He may live His life in ours—our working and resting, our disappointments and failures, our satisfactions and successes. From His birth amid animals to His death between criminals, Jesus came to share our life to the full, to live His life in us.

But His tiny, shining eyes invite us to hand ourselves over to Him in turn, so that we may live our lives in His—His trust in the Father, His love for His Mother, His joy in the Spirit.

The choice is ours, and the stakes are high. For this little Child “will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead.”

In Christ Jesus,

Bishop Liam Cary
