Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though you have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

- St. Alphonsus Liguori, 18th century.

A Prayer for Catholic Education Week

God bless our teachers who are now having to do everything they do in such a different way.

May they find inspiration that Jesus, the teacher, walks beside them every day.

God bless our students, who miss their friends, miss their teachers (almost as much as their teachers miss them!) and even miss the routine that school offers so that we all know what day of the week it is.

May Jesus be your friend as you spend time learning in a new way.

God bless our principals, leaders of faith, trying to guide and support in a way they never imagined.

Seek rest and courage in our Lord as you move step by step towards the future.

God bless our school staff, who answer calls and emails, who keep our schools safe and clean, who miss the feet and the giggles and the joy of our children.

May you know the Lord is thrilled with the love you pour into your jobs. God bless the school boards trying to make sure that when we come back together as a school family, that we are not only in the care of God the Father, but that the administrators are living out their call to love and care for you as well.

We wish you peace and love while you are away and ask God to bless you and keep you safe until we meet again.

In Jesus' most holy name we pray,
Amen.

Just a Reminder !
