INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Protect the property from further damage:
   • Cover the property if it is exposed to the elements.
   • Make repairs if reasonable and necessary to protect the property from further damage.
   • Maintain a record of all expenses incurred protecting the property.
   • Separate damaged from undamaged personal property, if possible.
2. Take photos of damage preferably before you take protective action.
3. Prepare inventory of personal property damage:
   • List quantity, description, actual cash value and amount of loss.
   • Attach bills, receipts and related documents.
4. Retain damaged property until a claims adjuster approves disposal (unless a danger to safety):
   • The adjuster may need to inspect the property.
   • The insurance company may be able to salvage the damaged property.
5. Notify police in the case of a theft.
6. Be prepared to provide additional documentation as requested by the adjuster.
7. Expect to be contacted by the claims adjuster within 48 hours:
   • If the damage significantly affects your continuing operation, we will request that the insurance company expedite your claim.
   • Please let us know immediately if your circumstances change and this loss will have a greater effect on your business than originally anticipated.
8. Business interruption or extra expenses due to loss:
   - Record all expenses incurred due solely to the loss.
     - Wages for employees involved in clean up or repair
     - Overtime paid for employees to fulfill orders that would have been completed during normal hours if not for the loss
     - Outside vendors involved in clean up, repair, etc.
     - Leasing of temporary space until your facility is repaired
     - Leasing or purchase of any items necessary to continue operations
     - Other
   - Record all expenses that you continue to incur despite the necessary suspension of your operations:
     - Wages for employees who were sent home but still paid (may be covered for continued payroll)
     - Other
   - Document any business lost due to the necessary suspension of your operations:
     - Canceled orders
     - Refused orders
     - Other
   - Complete financial records may be necessary to determine your lost income due to the loss:
     - Your accountant may be able to help, especially if your on-location financial information was destroyed due to the loss.
     - The insurance company may assign an accountant to determine the exact amount of your loss.
