Wife's Acknowledgement:

I, the undersigned, due hereby state that my husband has discussed with me his interest in the diaconal ministry and I support his interest therein. I further acknowledge that I will attend the Deacon Discernment Sessions with him to determine if this ministry is doable for our family in the here and now.

Pastor's Acknowledgement:

I, the undersigned, due hereby acknowledge that I support this man as a deacon aspirant. I have discussed the diaconal ministry with him (and if married his wife) and I am fairly confident that he may have a calling to diaconal ministry and has the potential to undergo the commitment required for deacon formation training. I further understand that his admission into the Discernment Sessions does not guarantee admission into the Formation Program.
