Bishop Spalding has extended the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days through August 3, 2020. We will continue to refrain from public Sunday Masses, but will continue to offer two "private" Masses on Saturday and Sunday. We will continue to offer public Mass each morning at 8:00 am Monday through Friday and on Wednesdays at 6:00 pm. Any other public Masses (such as First Saturday Mass) will be announced in the bulletin. Even though Masses have resumed, those who are vulnerable, sick, or otherwise at risk

GOD'S WORDS

Each day we are bombarded with thousands of words. From the moment our clock radios click on in the morning, until the last moment of the day when the television is turned off or someone bids us "good-night," our life is filled with words. Some words that we hear bring news that leaves us feeling low. Some words lift our spirits. Many of the words we hear are trying to get us to buy something. Some words are hurtful. Today the Church focuses our attention on hearing the word of God. Are God's words just more of the same—part of the endless stream of words that flow into our ears each day? The challenge today is to allow God's word to inspire us in new ways so that our outlook and attitudes align themselves more closely with the heart and mind of Christ Jesus. Copyright © J. S. are encouraged to refrain from attending Mass. As of July 1st, the number of people allowed to gather at non-liturgical events increased from 10 to 50 people as long as social distancing can be maintained safely. At the present time, Father Klasek may not be able to visit and anoint Catholics living in the facilities covered by State regulations. The Sacrament of Sick should not be delayed until a person is near death. Getting a person anointed before entering these protected facilities would be preferable to waiting until after admission.

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA (1656-1680) July 14

Though the New York State Thruway runs close by the North American Martyrs' Shrine, traffic's roar never pierces the peace enveloping Auriesville—Ossernon to Native Americans—in the lovely Mohawk Valley, where Kateri Tekakwitha was born barely ten years after the martyrdom of Isaac Jogues and his Jesuit and lay companions. Daughter of a Christian Algonquin mother and non-Christian Mohawk chief, Kateri's parents died in a smallpox epidemic widely blamed on the missionaries. Moreover, many Native Americans had experienced exploitation at the hands of "Christian" traders and trappers, further discrediting the faith Kateri embraced in baptism, then pledged to live even more intensely in vowed virginity. Misunderstanding led to harassment, prompting her move to a Christian village farther north along the Saint Lawrence River. Despite this, Kateri's faith remained undaunted, her selfless charity undiminished. Both before and after her death at twenty-four, this young "Lily of the Mohawks" drew countless converts to Christ by the fragrance of her goodness. Through us, does "the aroma of Christ" (2 Corinthians 2:15), attract others to the beauty of his gospel? —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
