TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Journey of Faith with Fr. Matthew Oakland

Each year popes publish a series of intentions for each month in the following year—2022’s intentions are already published, for example—as we the church is invited to be one in prayer for the needs of the Church and the world. In the beginning of June, a short video on the beauty of marriage including this month’s intention was released through the Pope’s Worldwide Prayer Network - <https://www.popesprayer.va/>.

Here are his full comments, including the intention for his month in bold:

“Is it true, what some people say—that young people don’t want to get married, especially during these difficult times?

Getting married and sharing one’s life is something beautiful. It’s a demanding journey, at times difficult, and at times complicated, but it’s worth making the effort. And on this life-long journey, the husband and wife aren’t alone; Jesus accompanies them.

Marriage isn’t just a “social” act; it’s a vocation that’s born from the heart; it’s a conscious decision for the rest of one’s life that requires specific preparation.

Please, never forget this. God has a dream for us —love— and He asks us to make it our own. Let us make our own the love which is God’s dream for us.

And let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

Because a great deal of patience is necessary in order to love. But it’s worth it, eh?”

Last Spring, we were not only disallowed from public Mass, but weddings and funerals as well. We helped one couple move their wedding to another state. Reopening, we had a few weddings with just 30 people, and some just chose to wait a year in hopes of something more.

Because Sacraments mean something. They are encounters with God, as we open ourselves up to His life and grace. And in the Sacrament of Marriage, a couple draws near not just to one another, but to Lord in His love for them as well.

Marriage is a vocation—a calling from God—so its pretty important to include Him throughout, to listen for the voice of where the Lord is calling. The vows, the heart of the Rite of Marriage, take just a few seconds—but define the rest of their lives as they make that choice to love. Yes, a demanding journey requiring love, generosity, faithfulness and patience—and worth it!

Please keep our couples preparing for marriage in your prayers, and pray for a greater discernment and embrace of the vocation of marriage—the beautiful calling of God to share in His communion.

On this Father’s Day, we call to mind the fruitfulness of married love, and the many ways in which fathers give and sustain the lives of others, in particular those entrusted to their care by the Lord. Thank you, dads, for choosing to love with generosity, faithfulness and patience, for the ways in which you have provided and protected and prayed for your beloved sons and daughters.

THIS IS THE DAY THE LORD HAS MADE

Do the consecrated bread and wine cease to be the Body and Blood of Christ when the Mass is over?

No. During the celebration of the Eucharist, the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ, and this they remain. They cannot turn back into bread and wine, for they are no longer bread and wine at all. There is thus no reason for them to change back to their "normal" state after the special circumstances of the Mass are past. Once the substance has really changed, the presence of the Body and Blood of Christ "endures as long as the Eucharistic species subsist" (Catechism, no. 1377). Against those who maintained that the bread that is consecrated during the Eucharist has no sanctifying power if it is left over until the next day, St. Cyril of Alexandria replied, "Christ is not altered, nor is his holy body changed, but the power of the consecration and his life-giving grace is perpetual in it" (Letter 83, to Calosyrius, Bishop of Arsinoe [PG 76, 1076]).

The Church teaches that Christ remains present under the appearances of bread and wine as long as the appearances of bread and wine remain (cf. Catechism, no. 1377).
