Autumn Activities...

Last week the Joint Pastoral Council met for the first time since summer and one agenda items was "Upcoming Events." There are a number of events taking place in the next two months and I thought it might be a good idea to highlight them to make sure that you get at least some of them on your calendar. Most of them are activities that are open to both parishes and are good ways to get to know other parishioners, whether at HF or SJW. Isn't it great to meet and spend time with parishioners from the other parish (or a different Mass time)?

Next Sunday, September 23rd, as has been advertised, is the Hubbell Harvest Fall Festival, which begins with the 10:30 am Mass at SJW and concludes at 2:30 pm. Great food, entertainment, children's games, silent auction, raffle and much more!

The SJW Stewardship Fair will take place after the 5 pm and 10:30 am Masses on the weekend of October 6-7; stop to learn about ministries that match your interests and skills, and perhaps enjoy a little frozen yogurt, too. "Pedro the Piñata" may appear...

Rumor has it that the Booya Feed will take place on Sunday, October 21st, at HF Church in the late afternoon. Those returning from the long "MEA" weekend will not have to cook when you return; stop and eat at the church or take some home for a hearty meal.

Sunday, November 11th, you won't have to make Dad cook breakfast because of the SJW Women's Fall Brunch. I seem to remember the variety of options, including egg bake, biscuits and gravy, sausage, French toast, juice and coffee. (I shouldn't write these columns on an empty stomach!)

The following Saturday, November 17th, it's time for the annual Holiday Fair at HF (HF at HF?): again, a great lunch of hot turkey sandwiches and homemade dessert, plus a raffle, silent auction, fun for the children and a good selection of baked goods, jams and pickles.

Sometimes newer parishioners are looking for ways to meet people and these events are great opportunities to make new friends. In fact, one of the best ways to do so is by volunteering to help with the event; many a friendship is formed by working together on a fun activity.

A couple weeks ago, I mentioned that Father Harold is hoping to complete the next phase of the school project and needs $5,842 to finish six classrooms. The SJW Men's Club donated $1,000 and a few parishioners gave another $900, so now it's down to $4,000 in case any of you are in a position to make a special gift.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Tim Reker

P.S. This week the priests of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester will be meeting for our annual workshop in the Okoboji area; please keep us in your prayers as we gather and know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers while I am away.

St. Joseph the Worker Hubbell Harvest Festival
Sunday, September 23rd from 11:30am to 2:30pm.
DONATIONS STILL NEEDED!

Here are some different ways you can help donate:

DONATE: Fill jars with goodies for the Jar Raffle or donate a themed basket for the Silent Auction. This year we are only accepting NEW items for the Silent Auction, if you donate an item that is gently used and we choose not to use it, it will be saved for our spring garage sale. Prizes also needed for children's games. New or like new condition: beanie babies, hot wheels, fast food prizes, etc. Used books are needed as well for the used book sale, especially children's books.

CREATE: Homemade items are needed for Granny's Corner. Yard games (such as bean bag toss or yard dice), scarves, and jewelry are some ideas. Start crafting now!

Drop off nonperishable donations at the Parish Office or Parish Entrances.

Due to deaths and moving our numbers have dwindled and we are in need of more members. Please join us.
