Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

WE SAY YES TO GOD!

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE!
Sunday, January 29, 2017
10:30am - 1:30pm
His First Followers

We began the Church year with the foundations of our Christian life. We focused on our baptismal call to preach the word of God. Now we focus on the call of the first apostles.

Today’s painting is again from the Sistine Chapel, where Ghirlandaio based this scene on today’s Gospel. The Sea of Galilee spreads out behind Jesus, who is once again front and center. Several towns line the shore and remind us of Capernaum, where Jesus lived and near where he called his first followers.

Two apostles kneel in front of Jesus; another pair stand behind him. Their gestures and postures reveal their interior attitudes. One apostle crosses his arms in acceptance while another prayerfully looks up at Jesus. The third apostle, behind Jesus, has his hand at his chest as if to say, “Are you sure you want me?” The fourth seems to look away. Many others surround Jesus, but not all of them are called to be apostles.

The call of Jesus is real. He may not ask us to leave behind our business or family, but he does ask for the same totality of trust and following. The result of fully saying “yes” to this call is what the first reading proclaims: “You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing; They rejoice before you as people rejoice at harvest…” (Isaiah 9:2). The “joy of the gospel” that Pope Francis proclaimed in his 2013 apostolic exhortation is exactly this: that joy that comes from a sincere and generous “yes” to Jesus’ call to be a disciple.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

“At once they left their nets and followed him” (Matthew 4:20).
Dear Padre,

1 Corinthians 10:13 states, “God...will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial he will also provide a way out....” My brother committed suicide, and I wonder why he wasn’t “able to bear it.” Please help me to understand.

The death of a family member is never easy to deal with. I pray for your peace and your brother’s eternal rest.

We can’t be sure what your brother was thinking when he ended his life, but we can be certain God was with him. God remains faithful to his covenant and will never disappoint the hope and trust of his children. Does this mean your brother failed to trust in God? We don’t know that. Only God and your brother know the extent of his condition and suffering.

When we recall Jesus’ lament from the cross—“My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” (Matthew 27:46; Psalm 22:2)—we see that in his darkest moment, his Father was with him. In the same way, God was present in the worst of your brother’s trials. Why he was nevertheless unable to bear them is a question we may never have the answer to on this side of heaven. It’s important to remember that the Church has great compassion for those who commit suicide. To leave your brother in God’s merciful hands is to act with the conviction of our faith.

A Word From Pope Francis

“To evangelize...it is necessary to open ourselves once again to the horizon of God’s Spirit, without being afraid of what he asks us or of where he leads us.”
