Accentuating the Positive

Hate is a passion that can take over a person’s heart in a short amount of time. God knows this, and he challenges us to avoid hate and holding grudges. In the law that Jesus preached, we are not even allowed to hate our enemies or persecutors. That is radical!

It is easy to let injuries build up over time. Eventually we find ourselves far away from those we should be closest to or those we once loved. This separation starts in our thoughts and settles into our hearts and behavior. Hate grows, and if it isn’t controlled and redeemed, it can pull us down.

We don’t have to hate, be angry, or carry grudges if we don’t want to. Our hearts and minds can be filled with God’s grace. We can work on three levels to overcome hate and anger: visual, verbal, and physical. When angry thoughts invade your mind, look up (visual), speak the truth to yourself (verbal), and change your posture (physical). This helps alter self-destructive thought patterns and helps us refocus our heart and mind. Add these natural means to the supernatural means of calling on God’s grace, of receiving the sacrament of penance, and of taking moments of prayer to see and speak his truth over a situation.

We are God’s temple. His spirit of peace, mercy, and serenity needs to reign inside us. That means getting rid of negative, hateful, and hurtful thoughts toward ourselves and others. Don’t let them pull you down!

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection
Michelangelo paints three figures pulling the sinner down. Which three passions weigh down my heart? How can I use human and spiritual means to point my heart and mind in a healthier, God-focused direction?

“You shall not hate any of your kindred in your heart…. Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against your own people. You shall love your neighbor as yourself” (Leviticus 19:17–18).
Dear Padre,

Is it ever OK to use “God” and “damn” together?

When we pray “hallowed be thy name” in the Lord’s Prayer, we give God the reverence he is due. Because the Lord’s name is holy, we mustn’t abuse it. The Second Commandment tells us not to “take the name of the LORD...in vain” (see Exodus 20:7). With our tongue, “we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse human beings who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. This need not be so...” (James 3:9–10).

What happens, when our reverence is contradicted by cursing? For some, cursing is a cathartic response to pain or anger. Those who view it as a form of stress management or as a substitute for physical aggression may contend that condemning in this context is neither literal nor deliberate. If God knows our hearts, that our misuse of his name is insincere, what’s the harm?

“A sharp tongue is the only edge[d] tool that grows keener with constant use,” wrote Washington Irving. In other words, if we constantly and carelessly misuse God’s name, we may stop feeling sorry that it offends him. That irreverent attitude is more offensive—and more dangerous—than the vocabulary. Scripture warns, “Death and life are in the power of the tongue; those who choose one shall eat its fruit” (Proverbs 18: 21).

A Word From Pope Francis

“It’s terrible to see an insult or taunt issue from the mouth of a Christian. It is ugly...To insult is not Christian....Before God we are all sinners and in need of forgiveness.”

ALL SAINTS TUESDAY BREAKFAST AWARDED GRANT

Tuesday Breakfast ministry is a proud recipient of a grant awarded from Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl for this 2017 year. The money provided will be used to purchase supplies and food to feed between 60-100 homeless and hungry people of Hayward every Tuesday.

The CRS Rice Bowl in the Diocese of Oakland is a Lenten program of prayer, fasting, learning and giving. The funds collected are distributed in the form of grants for hunger and poverty alleviation programs. This year the CRS Rice Bowl awarded 40 local Catholic Church ministries a total of $30,750.00, with ours being one of them! We are very honored and humbled and promise to use these funds to advance the breakfast feeding program here at All Saints. Our own All Saints School Third Graders were also awarded a grant to provide nutritious lunches once a month to our hungry and homeless friends in Hayward! You can be assured your contributions to CRS Rice Bowl this Lenten Season are appreciated and will be spent right here in our local communities.

Thank you so much and many blessings to all of you. Remember, “Whatsoever you do for the least of my brothers, that you do unto me.” Marlene Rodriguez, Tuesday Breakfast Representative.

On the Road to Sainthood: Leaders of African Descent

Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange (1784-1882)
Mother Mary Lange was the foundress and first Superior General of the Oblate Sisters of Providence (1829-1832), the first congregation of African American women religious in the history of the Catholic Church. On July 2, 1829, Elizabeth and three other women professed their vows and became the Oblate Sisters of Providence. This congregation would educate and evangelize African Americans. She was born Elizabeth Lange, a native of the Caribbean, believed to be Cuban born of Haitian descent. By 1813 Providence directed her to Baltimore, Maryland where a large community of French speaking Catholics from Haiti was established.

Venerable Henriette Delille (1813-1862)
Henriette Delille was born in New Orleans, Louisiana, where she lived all of her life. She was determined to help those in need for the love of Jesus and for the sake of the Gospel. It was in this manner that she dealt with her troubles and major obstacles to achieve her goals. Some of the troubles Henriette met were the resistance of the ruling population to the idea of a black religious congregation; the lack of finances to do the work; the taunts and disbelief of people in her mission; the lack of support from both the Church and civil authority; and poor health. In 1842, she founded the Congregation of the Sisters of the Holy Family.

Julia Greeley (1838 – 1918)
was born into slavery in Hannibal, Missouri, sometime between 1838 -1848. At an early age, she suffered at the hands of a slave owner, who destroyed her right eye while beating her mother. She was freed by President Abraham Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation in 1863, and entered the Catholic Church while in Colorado, receiving the sacrament of baptism in 1880. As a lay Franciscan, closely affiliated with the Jesuits at her parish, she was actively involved in promoting the faith and devotion to the Sacred Heart. She became known by her acts of charity and mercy to those living on the margins of society, in spite of living in extreme poverty herself. Greeley died in 1918.

Fr. Augustus Tolton (1854-1897)
Augustus Tolton was the first Roman Catholic priest in the United States publicly known to be black when he was ordained in 1886. A former slave who was baptized and reared Catholic. Tolton studied formally in Rome. He was ordained in Rome on Easter Sunday at the Cathedral Archbasilica of St. John Lateran. Fr. Tolton led the development and construction of St. Monica’s Catholic Church as a black “National Parish Church”, completed in 1893.

Venerable Pierre Toussaint (1776-1853)
Venerable Pierre Toussaint was born a slave in Haiti. Philanthropist & Founder of many Catholic charitable works. As a slave, Venerable Pierre Toussaint was brought from Haiti to New York and apprenticed under a popular hairstylist in the city. He eventually became the most sought after hairdresser of high society women. Upon the death of his master, he gained his freedom and was very successful as one of the country’s first black entrepreneurs. He founded one of New York’s first orphanages and raised money for the city’s first cathedral.
