What you do Matters!
1 Donation May Save 3 Lives!
La pintura mural de la Ascensión de Pinturicchio se encuentra en los aposentos del Papa Alejandro VI Borgia y fue pintada al mismo tiempo que uno de los viajes de Colón a América: 1492. Cuando el Papa murió en 1503, estas habitaciones fueron cerradas y no se volvieron a abrir hasta 1889. ¿Podrían estos tesoros artísticos haber sido olvidados y perdidos por 400 años?

Dear Padre,

What is “secularism,” and is it possible for a Christian to also be a secularist?

Secularism is a philosophical movement that has its roots in England in the 1850s. The movement began because some felt religion and the Bible were inadequate sources for explaining many aspects of modern life. Secularists believe you can find all motivation for living a moral life in what is readily observable. Thus, secularism sees the Christian religion, and in fact all religions, as worthless.

Some might argue that secularism is the same as the separation of Church and state, that public schools should give a secular education, that they shouldn’t be teaching the Christian, or any, religion. At first glance, that may sound right, but it isn’t.

A Catholic second-grade public school teacher should not teach Catholic doctrine to her class in the same way that a Baptist second-grade public school teacher should not teach Baptist doctrine to his class, but the faith of the Catholic or the Baptist should influence the way they teach their class.

They might not teach specific doctrine, but the way each approaches the class should be done as one who has faith in Jesus Christ. The same is true of a politician or someone who works at a fast-food restaurant. In implicit ways, our faith in Jesus should always influence what we say and do.

A Word From Pope Francis

“Don’t forget this! The Ascension of Jesus into heaven acquaints us with this deeply consoling reality on our journey: In Christ, true God and true man, our humanity was taken to God. Christ opened the path to us.”

Right Here, Write Now! The Musical

Location: Chabot Performing Arts Theater in Hayward CA

Performance Dates: June 30 and July 1, 2017

Trailer: YouTube

Right Here, Write Now! opens with a group of friends, preparing on their graduation day. Through upbeat and high-energy numbers, they excitedly share the stories that have brought them to this very moment. One of the graduates, in eager anticipation of the next chapter of her life, struggles in finding her own story, unsure how to piece together a compelling story worth telling. After listening to the interweaving tales of friendship, life, family, and love, our main character discovers the power to write her own story through the stories of her loved ones. The entire musical runs against a background of music that will move your feet and your hearts as our graduates take us on a heartwarming journey through the pages of their adventures, leading up to their commencement and ours.

Why Right Here, Write Now?

Everyone has a story to tell. Every story has a lesson to be learned. And with each lesson learned, if we are in tune with the author of life, we are given the opportunity to create new stories.

No matter where we stand today, it doesn't mean that we're stuck; every day is a new beginning. You can always choose to write your story.

Our stories are intertwined with each other; they are what connect us. And at the end of the day, despite where we've been, all our stories have brought us to share this moment, right here, and right now.
