Childlike Faith

Humble souls have a special ability to see things. We exclaim, “Out of the mouth of babes” when kids say the darnedest (and most profound) things (Matthew 21:16 and Psalm 8:2–3). What their uncluttered minds can catch and express with blatant honesty can be refreshing and funny.

Jesus enjoys this simplicity as well. He rejoices because, while “the wise and the learned” have rejected his preaching and mighty deeds, the childlike have embraced them. They are not afraid of the implications; they simply are amazed, impressed, and accept that no one but God could do such things. Perhaps this is why angels are often painted like little children!

Jesus can speak of heavenly mysteries because he is the Son. The Father and he are one and share in the fullness of knowledge. Christ sits in glory surrounded by cherubs and angels, yet comes down to reveal what the Father has given him. Let’s embrace all of his revealed word with childlike faith and not just pick and choose what suits us.

Another characteristic of little children is unending energy. It comes partly from their age but also endures because they don’t waste energy worrying or thinking about things they cannot control. They don’t plan, project, or prioritize.

They live in the grace of the present. We will find that as we live simply and give our burdens to Jesus, we live more rested, peaceful lives. Let’s take on his childlike humility, which makes the burdensome easy and light.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection
How can I yoke myself to Jesus, my Lord and king?
What burdens, stressors, or disappointments can I hand over to God this week?

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28).
When people close their eyes and imagine the person of Jesus, no two images are exactly the same. Our images of Jesus are usually the result of our cultural influences and experiences. When I imagine Jesus, I often call to mind a picture of Jesus that was on one of my first holy cards.

With recent archeological investigation, combined with the work of medical artists who are often called to testify as forensic witnesses in capital murder trials, and finally starting with the assumption that Jesus resembled a typical peasant from first-century Palestine, some clues may have emerged. According to experts like Richard Neave, Jesus was possibly a person with a broad peasant’s face, dark olive skin, short curly hair, and a prominent nose. His height would have been on the order of 5 feet 1 inch and he would have weighed about 110 pounds.

Of course, all of this is unnecessary speculation. What is important in matters of faith is not this level of detail but what is expressed and celebrated by the Church—that Jesus became man, born of the Virgin Mary, and we are all offered a share in the divinity of Christ.

A Word From Pope Francis

“God has hidden [the mysteries of his Kingdom, the manifestation of divine lordship in Jesus and the victory over Satan] from those who are all too full of themselves and who claim to know everything already. They are blinded by their presumptuousness and they leave no room for God. One can easily think of some of Jesus’ contemporaries whom he repeatedly admonished, but the danger is one that always exists and concerns us, too. The ‘little ones,’ for their part, are the humble, the simple, the poor, the marginalized, those without voice, those weary and burdened, whom Jesus pronounced ‘blessed.’ We readily think of Mary, Joseph, the fishermen of Galilee and the disciples whom Jesus called as he went preaching.”

Cal State Student in Need of Car!

Hello, my name is John Zamora. This fall, I will be in my last year as a Computer Science Major. I’m currently looking for a car to help me in my job search. Since moving to Hayward in 2013, the welcoming community of All Saints has become a second family to me. Just as I look to my family for help, I ask you to help me. If you or anyone you know is looking to sell a vehicle to fit a college student budget, please contact me at (209) 968-3809 or jhzamora28@gmail.com or contact our Campus Minister, Eunice Park, at CSUEB.CatholicMinistry@gmail.com and thank you!

GREEN CORNER

Since 2013 grocery, drug and liquor stores were not allowed to provide single-use plastic carry out bags. As of May 1st 2017 the New Reusable Bag Ordinance of Alameda County has including retail stores to their list. A minimum of $.10 must be charged for a paper or reusable bag.

Goal:
- Carry a reusable bag to all of your shopping destinations. By refusing a bag we lessen the waste in the world. If all of the All Saints Parish community did this we would make a big impact. Tell your friends/family to do the same!

“It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; He is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is He who provoked you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is He who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is He who reads in your heart your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle.

It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be ground down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal.” — Pope John Paul II
