Las lecturas de hoy tratan sobre la corrección fraterna. Somos responsables por el bien de nuestro hermano, y Dios espera que le ayudemos. Esto significa ser un buen ejemplo y mantenerlo a un estándar del evangelio. Si eso significa una dosis dura de la verdad, so be it, as long as that truth is given in love.

Ezequiel era un profeta que sabía predicar fuego y azufre, pero él también podía ser tierno y compasivo. Él profetizó tanto sobre la destrucción de Israel y cómo Yahweh convertiría sus corazones de piedra en carne. En Michelangelo’s fresco en el techo de la Capilla Sixtina, la fuerza de este profeta es evidente. Que Ezequiel se volvió para escuchar a un querubín dice mucho sobre su humildad as well.

God told Ezekiel that if he didn’t preach to the wicked, God would hold him responsible for their deaths. However, if he did preach and the wicked still didn’t heed him, Ezekiel would be safe. The moral is, when God asks us to preach, take it seriously!

Jesus tells us if our brother sins against us, we should confront him in the presence of two witnesses. He even encourages us to bring the Church in as judge if a dispute between believers isn’t resolved. However, this should always be done with love.

As humble Christians, we should accept corrections when they are done correctly. No one likes to be told he or she is wrong, but if we should rejoice in the truth, even if it hurts. And we should thank those who love us enough to correct us.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC
Dear Padre,

I want my children to be merciful and forgiving like Jesus, but I don’t want them to be permissive of sin because someone else thinks it’s OK. How can I teach this balance?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches, “Education in the faith by parents should begin in the child’s earliest years. This already happens when family members help one another to grow in faith by the witness of a Christian life in keeping with the Gospel” (CCC 2226). The balance of advocating the magnitude of God’s mercy without diminishing the severity of sin is best taught through witness.

You should hold your children accountable (and vice versa) and explain with loving candor how lax attitudes and actions have consequences. As we are taught in Proverbs 27:5, “Better is an open rebuke than a love that remains hidden.”

An intimate relationship with God also helps. It’s easier to instill greater compassion in ourselves and in others when we’ve experienced God’s infinite mercy firsthand. Jesus asked the woman caught in adultery, “Has no one condemned you?” She replied, ‘No one, sir.’ Then Jesus said, ’Neither do I condemn you. Go, [and] from now on do not sin any more” (John 8:10–11).

Christ loves the sinner and despises the sin—but he doesn’t dwell on the sin. Instead, Jesus rejoices when sinners enter a newfound relationship with his merciful Father, knowing that the experience of God’s mercy is the catalyst for ultimate change and lasting conversion, where neither the sinner is condemned nor the sin condoned.

A Word From Pope Francis

“If you are not capable of performing fraternal reproof with love, with charity, in truth and with humility, you will offend, damage that person’s heart: you will create an extra tale that wounds and you will become a blind hypocrite, as Jesus says...a sign which perhaps can help us: when one sees something wrong and feels that he should correct it but perceives a certain pleasure in doing so, then it is time to pay attention, because that is not the Lord’s way. In the Lord there is always the cross, the difficulty of doing something good.”

In the Gospel of Matthew, chapter 4, verse 19 Jesus says, “Come and Follow me and I will make you Fishers of Men”. What does it mean to be a “Fisher of Men”? We are all called by our Baptism to continue to spread the word of God, and live as God calls us to. This includes living our faith, sharing our stories, and being Christ like to those we encounter, and hopefully by our example bring them closer in their relationship with Christ.

There is a worldwide movement known as Cursillo. Cursillo is defined as a Short course in Christianity”. It was started in 1944 in Majorca Spain, and came to North America in 1961. It is very large and active in the Diocese of Oakland, with probably close to 100 of your fellow parishioners having made their own Cursillo weekend.

Cursillo is a three day weekend, starting on a Thursday night, and ending on Sunday afternoon. It is a weekend of prayer, reflecting on your relationship with Christ, and also your relationship with yourself, and sharing your stories with others. I can’t say that it will make you better at anything, but I can guarantee you without a doubt, that it will change you as a person, and definitely change your relationship with God.

Cursillo is for men and women both, but each making their weekend separately. There are upcoming weekends in October for each. The men’s weekend is Oct. 5-8 and the women’s, Oct. 19-22. If you would like more information about this incredible journey, please feel free to contact me for the men’s weekend, or Lety Arechiga in the parish office about the women’s. You will not be disappointed.
