Congratulations to our newly initiated!
Jesus himself picked the image of the vine to describe the reality of our being united to him and the Father. And this was not lost on early Christians. One of the first images they used to mark their graves was the vine and branches.

Jesus mismo escogió la imagen de la vid para describir la realidad de nuestro estar unido a él y al Padre. Y esto no estaba perdido en los primeros cristianos. Una de las primeras imágenes que usaron para marcar sus tumbas fue la vid y las ramas.

An amazing thing about a vine and its branches is that you can’t tell the difference between them. Look at a grapevine and try to determine which is the branch and which is the vine or trunk. You can’t, since it appears as one seamless reality. Jesus invites us to be so close to him that we appear to be just like him—“other Christs,” as our name Christian suggests!

Second, the sap that springs from the vine, runs through the branches, and matures in the fruit is all the same. The life in Jesus and the life in us as Christians are the same. He has given us the same Spirit that animated him, the Holy Spirit.

This is why Jesus can guarantee that, if we remain in him by listening to his word and following his Spirit, we will definitely bear much fruit. His word and Spirit cannot remain sterile in us.

The most important result of being united to Jesus and bearing fruit is that not only will we be united to him in this life, but this friendship will last for all eternity. That’s why early Christians put vines on their tombs.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection
Do I find ways to regularly read and hear the word of God?
What symbols would sincerely represent the way I live my life?

The Church was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers.

Dear Padre,

Just last week, my parish ran a “join up” campaign at all the Masses. I felt guilty because I didn’t sign up for anything. Do I have an obligation to join any of the parish organizations?

When you join any of your parish organizations, you will experience a network of people dedicated to building up the body of Christ through the various parish ministries.

According to the Code of Canon Law, the baptized are fundamentally united in the communio fidelium, “a dynamic reality requiring the active participation of all the faithful in the Church’s life and mission” (Canon 209). It finds visible expression through public worship and through the exercise of obligations and rights. As a parish member, you are obligated to maintain communion with the Church; to fulfill your particular duties to the universal Church and your parish church; to live a holy life and promote the growth of the Church; to work to spread the gospel; and to follow what the pastor and bishops declare as teachers of the faith and leaders of the Church (Canons 209–212).

Laypeople are called to infuse their faith in Christ through all their undertakings in the secular world and within the Church. The various organized ministries of the parish offer ways that you, as a parishioner, can fulfill some of those obligations as you are able, in the Church’s life and mission inside and outside your parish. Perhaps you will rethink your decision to not sign up for anything. It’s never too late to become a parish volunteer!

A Word From Pope Francis

The Holy Spirit, in the variety of his gifts, unites us and enables us to contribute to the building up of the Church in holiness....
Let us ask the Lord to help us to take an ever more active part in the Church’s life and mission. —General audience, June 26, 2013
