Fourth Sunday of Advent
True Love Means Sacrifice

God is often present in the little, hidden things of life. Take for example the small town of Bethlehem. This place barely appeared on the maps of the time. Yet in this dull town, overlooked by all, God wished to be born. God isn't into bling.

Look at the ray of light in the painting that shines from the upper left window directly down onto Mary's womb. She carries in her the Light of the World, but it happened in a way unknown to anyone. He is the Light of the World, shining to catch our attention, but he does so in silence, humility, and intimacy.

There is a second aspect of the Incarnation to learn here. Christmas was about a real sacrifice. Mary and Jesus offered their very selves. Hebrews says it wasn’t an animal or a wheat offering but Jesus’ very body and blood. The same for Mary, as it was her life, her virginity, her very intimacy, that she was opening to God when she agreed to be the mother of the Lord. It’s easy to be generous when it doesn’t touch too close to home.

So try not to look for glitz and externals this Christmas but for God’s hidden presence. And imitate Jesus and Mary by giving of your very self. It’s not about a fast, a donation, or extra prayers—as good as those Advent practices are. But all of this prepares us to give our very selves to him in trust through the hidden acts of love of every day.

— Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

What hidden acts of love can you offer during this upcoming Christmas?
Are there ways you can point out to your children God’s presence in the little things?

We have been consecrated through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.
Hebrews 10:10

 Dios está a menudo presente en las cosas pequeñas y ocultas de la vida. Tomemos por ejemplo la pequeña ciudad de Belén. Este lugar apenas apareció en los mapas de la época. Sin embargo, en esta ciudad aburrida, pasada por alto por todos, Dios deseaba nacer. Dios no está en el amor. Mire el rayo de luz en la pintura que brilla desde la ventana superior izquierda directamente hacia el útero de María. Ella lleva en ella la Luz del Mundo, pero sucedió de una manera desconocida para cualquiera. Él es la Luz del Mundo, que brilla para captar nuestra atención, pero lo hace en silencio, humildad e intimidad. Hay un segundo aspecto de la Encarnación que aprender aquí. La Navidad se trataba de un verdadero sacrificio. María y Jesús se ofrecieron a sí mismos. Hebreos dice que no era un animal o una ofrenda de trigo sino el mismo cuerpo de Jesús y la sangre. Lo mismo para María, ya que era su vida, su virginidad, su misma intimidad, que se estaba abriendo a Dios cuando aceptó ser la madre del Señor. Es fácil ser generoso cuando no se toca demasiado cerca de casa. Así que trata de no buscar brillo y elementos externos esta Navidad, sino la presencia oculta de Dios. E imita a Jesús y a María dándote a ti mismo. No se trata de un ayuno, una donación u oraciones adicionales, tan buenas como esas prácticas de Adviento. Pero todo esto nos prepara para entregarnos a él con confianza a través de los actos ocultos de amor de cada día.

Our parish is big into nighttime services. We have the Advent vespers and, of course, Midnight Mass. Is there a reason for doing these services at night?

Both Advent vespers and Midnight Mass center on our expectation of Jesus coming into our midst as the Light of the World. The vespers prayer is usually celebrated at dusk, as day is turning into night. The service proclaims that the darkness of night will not conquer the Light of Jesus.

Christian tradition holds that the ecclesiastical day begins at sunset, in accord with Genesis 1:5: “Evening came, and morning followed—the first day.” Vespers, or the Office of Evening, is the first hour of the new Church day.

Both the vespers and the Mass at midnight call us to embrace a new beginning, which is Jesus the Light. This imagery is especially appropriate considering the arrival of the winter solstice. In the beginning of Advent, the nights grow progressively longer. Then, right before Christmas, the winter solstice marks the light’s reclaiming of the world.

In the early centuries of Christianity, people from the countryside would gather on Christmas Eve in the warmth of the great monastery church. They would go to confession, be forgiven, sing of the newborn Savior, and participate in the Eucharist. After Eucharist, they would join in a great feast that lasted until sunrise. When you celebrate at Midnight Mass this year, recall that you are proclaiming that Jesus the Light has conquered the darkness again—this year and forever.

A Word From Pope Francis

Jesus keeps knocking on our doors, the doors of our lives. He doesn’t do this by magic, with special effects, with flashing lights and fireworks. Jesus keeps knocking on our door in the faces of our brothers and sisters, in the faces of our neighbors, in the faces of those at our side.
