Jn 20:19–31
Saved by Christ’s Merciful Love

We’re not defined by our weakness, but created for greatness! Look at David, Paul, and the sinful woman. David was an adulterer and murderer, yet he wrote Psalms and was Jesus’ ancestor. Paul killed one of the first deacons, Stephen, yet became the greatest apostle to the Gentiles. The sinful woman’s misdeeds were public, yet what is most remembered is her repentance and love.

Sin is not the last word. God’s recreating mercy is. God’s mercy asks for a response so all that transformative power can be unleashed in us. The only thing that stands in the way of God’s renewal rushing in and totally transforming us is our own lack of acceptance.

Sin wants to stand in the way of this good news. The evil one tries to convince us that we are too sinful; that salvation and happiness might be for others, but certainly not for us.

But David, Paul, and the sinful woman didn’t let that sinister message sink in. David was moved to repentance by Nathan’s words. Paul accepted that he wasn’t saved by his religious fervor or condemned for his errors. He was saved by letting Christ’s merciful love embrace him. The sinful woman refused to be defined by her poor choices. She tearfully made penance at Christ’s feet, and this act of her brokenness gave off a consoling aroma that filled the house.

Let the power of Christ’s love be unleashed in you by forgiving yourself and others. Then your weakness will be the first step toward the greatness God has in store for you.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

[Jesus said,] “Receive the holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

John 20:22–23

No estamos definidos por nuestra debilidad, ¡sino creados para la grandeza! Mira a David, a Pablo y a la mujer pecadora. David fue un adúltero y un asesino, sin embargo, escribió Salmos y fue el antepasado de Jesús. Pablo mató a uno de los primeros diáconos, Esteban, pero se convirtió en el mejor apóstol de los gentiles. Las malas acciones de la mujer pecadora eran públicas, pero lo más recordado es su arrepentimiento y su amor. El pecado no es la última palabra. La misericordia que recrea a Dios es. La misericordia de Dios pide una respuesta para que todo ese poder transformador pueda ser desatado en nosotros. Lo único que se interpone en el camino de la renovación de Dios entrando y transformándonos totalmente es nuestra propia falta de aceptación. El pecado quiere interponerse en el camino de esta buena noticia. El maligno trata de convencernos de que somos demasiado pecadores; que la salvación y la felicidad pueden ser para otros, pero ciertamente no para nosotros. Pero David, Paul y la mujer pecadora no dejaron que ese mensaje siniestro se entrometiera. David se sintió arrepentido por las palabras de Natán. Pablo aceptó que no fue salvado por su fervor religioso o condenado por sus errores. Él fue salvo al dejar que el amor misericordioso de Cristo lo abrace. La mujer pecadora se negó a ser definida por sus malas elecciones. Ella hizo con lágrimas penitencia a los pies de Cristo, y este acto De su quebrantamiento desprendía un aroma consolador que llenaba la casa. Deja que el poder del amor de Cristo se desate en ti al perdonarte a ti mismo ya los demás. Entonces tu debilidad será el primer paso hacia la grandeza que Dios tiene para ti.
Dear Padre,

What is spiritual communion?

Spiritual communion is a unique Roman Catholic devotional practice not to be confused with sacramental Communion, which is the participation in the mystery of Christ by eating and drinking the Body and the Blood of the Lord.

The development of spiritual communion as a devotion can be traced to St. Alphonsus Liguori. It’s a form of spiritual yearning to be in communion with Christ during those times when his sacramental gift can’t be shared.

To share in sacramental Communion, one must be aware of no unconfessed serious sin against God’s commands and be in good standing with the Roman Catholic Church. With exceptions for age and health, one must also have fasted from all food and all beverages except water for one hour before receiving sacramental Communion. Some Catholics are unable to share sacramental Communion because of sickness, geographic distance from a Roman Catholic community, or unavailability of priests.

Any Christian who wishes to have spiritual communion with the Lord can do so by taking a moment to consider God’s love demonstrated to us in the life, passion, and death of Christ. Give thanks to God for this wonderful gift, and say a prayer of spiritual communion.

A Word from Pope Francis

The death penalty is contrary to the meaning of humanitas and to divine mercy, which must be models for human justice. It entails cruel, inhumane, and degrading treatment, as is the anguish before the moment of execution and the terrible suspense between the issuing of the sentence and the execution of the penalty.

—Letter to International Commission Against the Death Penalty, March 20, 2015

Green Corner

Did you know that the first Earth Day was celebrated on April 22, 1970 that is 49 years ago! It began to teach people about environmental issues & to help change human behavior & provoke policy changes. Has it done that for you?

!Earth Day Poem

EARTH DAY POEM

What You Can Do
When you see litter in the streets
And the air smells of pollution
When you feel like it’s all piling up
Remember there is a solution

There’s something each of us can do
To keep the rivers clean
To keep fresh the air we breathe
And keep the forests green

Help clean a beach
Or recycle bottles and cans
Learn about the problems we face
And help others understand

It doesn’t have to be a lot
If we each just do our share
So take time out on Earth Day
To show the Earth you care
—anonymous

Goal:

Think of everyday as Earth Day and pledge to practice the 5 R’s of Sustainability.
