The Miracle of the Eucharist

One of the most interesting representations of the Last Supper is this depiction from the Master of Fossa. Typically this scene is illustrated much like da Vinci’s The Last Supper—the Twelve Apostles sitting on one side of the table. In this rare interpretation, Jesus directly distributes the host to his apostles, reminding us how we receive Communion today. This rendering could be a nod to the feast of Corpus Christi, solemnly approved some thirty years earlier by Pope Clement V in 1311 in response to a eucharistic miracle in an Umbrian town.

A German priest struggling with his belief in the eucharistic presence of Jesus was celebrating Mass in Orvieto en route to Rome. After the consecration, the host turned to flesh and began to bleed. He wrapped up the Eucharist and brought it to the bishop in a nearby town. After studying the blood and the eyewitnesses, a miracle was declared.

Hundreds of documented eucharistic miracles help confirm our faith in the Eucharist. Should you question the belief that Christ’s body and blood are really present in the Eucharist, perhaps reading about these miracles would help.

This scene of the Last Supper is placed directly beneath the painting of the crucifixion, in this way reminding us that the Mass and Eucharist make present to us today the power of Jesus’ death. By celebrating the Eucharist, we unite ourselves with that Jesus and those events of his passion, death, and resurrection. For this reason, many Catholics silently repeat before receiving Communion, “My Lord and my God.”

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection
How is my faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist?
Should I look for ways to make my faith in his presence grow, perhaps by going to adoration this week?

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.
1 Corinthians 11:26

Una de las representaciones más interesantes de la Última Cena es esta descripción del Maestro de Fossa. Por lo general, esta escena se ilustra de manera muy similar a la Última cena de Da Vinci: los doce apóstoles sentados a un lado de la mesa. En esta rara interpretación, Jesús distribuye directamente la hostia a sus apóstoles, recordándonos cómo recibimos la Comunión hoy. Esta interpretación podría ser un guiño a la fiesta del Corpus Christi, aprobada solemnemente unos treinta años antes por el Papa Clemente V en 1311 en respuesta a un milagro eucarístico en una ciudad de Umbria. Un sacerdote alemán que luchaba con su creencia en la presencia eucarística de Jesús estaba celebrando una misa en Orvieto en camino a Roma. Después de la consagración, el pan se volvió carne y comenzó a sangrar. Envolvió la Eucaristía y se la llevó al obispo en un pueblo cercano. Después de estudiar la sangre y los testigos oculares, se declaró un milagro. Cientos de milagros eucarísticos documentados ayudan a confirmar nuestra fe en la Eucaristía. Si cuestionas la creencia de que el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo están realmente presentes en la Eucaristía, tal vez sería útil leer sobre estos milagros. Esta escena de la Última Cena se ubica directamente debajo de la pintura de la crucifixión, recordándonos así que la Misa y la Eucaristía nos presentan hoy el poder de la muerte de Jesús. Al celebrar la Eucaristía, nos unimos con ese Jesús y los eventos de su pasión, muerte y resurrección. Por esta razón, muchos católicos repiten en silencio antes de recibir la Comunión: “Mi Señor y mi Dios”.

ST. TERESA OF CALCUTTA

Feast Day: September 5
Canonized: September 4, 2016
Beatified: October 19, 2003
Venerated: December 20, 2002

On August 26, 1910, Mother Teresa was born Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu in Skopje, Macedonia. After living in North Macedonia for eighteen years, she moved to Ireland and then to India, where she lived for most of her life.

In 1950, Teresa founded the Missionaries of Charity, a Roman Catholic religious congregation that had over 4,500 nuns and was active in 133 countries in 2012. The congregation manages homes for people who are dying of HIV/AIDS, leprosy and tuberculosis. It also runs soup kitchens, dispensaries, mobile clinics, children's and family counselling programs, as well as orphanages and schools. Members take vows of chastity, poverty, and obedience, and also profess a fourth vow—to give "wholehearted free service to the poorest of the poor."

Mother Teresa received a number of honors, including the 1962 Ramon Magsaysay Peace Prize and 1979 Nobel Peace Prize.

SPRED......WHAT IS SPRED?

SPRED stands for Special Religious Education Department. The goal of the SPRED ministry is to integrate people with developmental disabilities in the faith and life of the church, and share the love of God and the love of Jesus Christ.

Here at All Saints SPRED is in its 7th year but this year we are losing three catechists and we will not be able to continue if we are not able to replace them. In the time we've been at All Saints, we have been able to prepare 4 of our friends for First Holy Communion and are now preparing them for confirmation. But we need your help.

There will be an informational night on Wednesday, June 19th at 7pm in the bride's room OR pick up a brochure on your way out OR check the bulletin for information. Please, we need your help. Thank you and God bless.

THANK YOU!

Birthright of San Lorenzo wishes to thank the priests and parishioners of All Saints Parish for your generosity, for your encouragement, and kindness. Your donations totaling $837.55 will go far toward helping moms and babies (dads too). If you have not returned your baby bottle, please continue to do so to the parish office. Thank you.

We are always in need of volunteers to help in our office, on special projects, and as Board members. If you have a few hours to help and be a part of Birthright, please call Theresa at 582-6358 or Birthright at 481-9677 or if you would like to receive our Newsletters.

You are in our prayers; please pray for us too and for the protection of the babies. God bless you.
