We Are All Prophets

Persecution is part of a prophet’s life. Their strong messages are rarely met with open hearts even if conversion, rather than confrontation, is what the prophet seeks. Bartholomew, one of the Twelve Apostles, was preaching in India and Turkey in the first century and converted the Armenian king. But the king’s brother had him flayed alive. Jeremiah foretold the destruction of Jerusalem unless the people returned their hearts to the Lord. This call to conversion was considered demoralizing for those who wished to continue in their self-centered ways. His words were even crushing the soldiers! Either Jeremiah was quite the preacher, the soldiers were weak, guilty—or both!

The fire of the prophet’s words is meant as a call to action for the soul caught up in lukewarm stagnation. They should be uncomfortable.

When more than 2,000 bishops reflected on the Church at Vatican II, they insisted that every baptized Christian have a prophetic mission. We’re called to shake things up. The role of the prophet is to examine in prayerful observation the signs of the times, and to read into them calls to action. The prophet listens with one ear to the Lord and another to society in order to speak wisely to his contemporaries.

This call to preach whether convenient or not was experienced by Christ. The flame that burned in his bosom was a desire to turn hearts toward his Father. Jesus didn’t back down from preaching out of fear of rejection of the gospel. Neither should we.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, I.C

For Reflection
Do I read the news and immerse myself in this culture with the examining heart of one called to transform culture with the gospel?
Are there ways I have become of the world and need to be more of the gospel?

Consider how [Jesus] entered such opposition from sinners, in order that you may not grow weary and lose heart.
Hebrews 12:3

La persecución es parte de la vida de un profeta. Sus fuertes mensajes rara vez se encuentran con corazones abiertos, incluso si lo que busca el profeta es la conversión, en lugar de la confrontación. Bartolomé, uno de los Doce Apóstoles, predicaba en India y Turquía en el primer siglo y convirtió al rey armenio. Pero el hermano del rey lo hizo desollar vivo. Jeremías predijo la destrucción de Jerusalén a menos que la gente devolviera sus corazones al Señor. Esta llamada a la conversión fue considerada desmoronadora para aquellos que deseaban continuar en su forma egocéntrica. ¡Sus palabras incluso aplastaban a los soldados! O bien Jeremías era el predicador, los soldados eran débiles, culpables, ¡o ambos! El fuego de las palabras del profeta se entiende como un llamado a la acción para el alma atrapada en un estancamiento tibio. Deben ser incómodos. Cuando más de 2,000 obispos reflexionaron sobre la Iglesia en el Vaticano II, insistieron en que cada cristiano bautizado tiene una misión profética. Estamos llamados a sudar las cosas. El papel del profeta es examinar en oración la observación de los signos de los tiempos y leer en ellos los llamados a la acción. El profeta escucha con un oído al Señor y otro a la sociedad para hablar sabiamente a sus contemporáneos. Este llamado a predicar, ya sea conveniente o no, fue experimentado por Cristo. La llama que ardía en su pecho era un deseo de volver los corazones hacia su Padre. Jesús no se retiró de la predicación por temor al rechazo del evangelio. Tampoco deberíamos nosotros.

In our First Reading, we hear the fate of a prophet who calls God's people back to fidelity.

Our Second Reading reminds us that, in spite of obstacles in our lives, we must focus our eyes on Jesus.

“There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished!”

BLESSED BE GOD IN ALL THE SAINTS:
SAINT PROFILE OF THE MONTH

ST. PIUS X

Feast Day: August 21
Canonized: May 29, 1954

Pope Pius X is perhaps best remembered for his encouragement of the frequent reception of Holy Communion, especially by children. The second of 10 children in a poor Italian family, Joseph Sarto became Pius X at age 68.

Ever mindful of his humble origin, his last will and testament bears the striking sentence: "I was born poor, I have lived in poverty, and I wish to die poor."

Interested in politics, Pope Pius encouraged Italian Catholics to become more politically involved. One of his first papal acts was to end the supposed right of governments to interfere by veto in papal elections—a practice that reduced the freedom of the 1903 conclave which had elected him.

In 1905, when France renounced its agreement with the Holy See and threatened confiscation of Church property if governmental control of Church affairs were not granted, Pius X courageously rejected the demand.

While he did not author a famous social encyclical as his predecessor had done, he denounced the ill treatment of indigenous peoples on the plantations of Peru, sent a relief commission to Messina after an earthquake, and sheltered refugees at his own expense.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Love Each Other, Learn Together, and Lead the Way

Where did the summer go? It seems like it just started, which makes it so hard to believe school starts tomorrow!

Although we may be a little sad summer is coming to an end, all of us at the school are excited to begin a new school year. My team has been working hard this summer to ensure this is the best year yet at All Saints Catholic School. We have many new things planned for the 2019-2020 school year including a great new Science Curriculum for all grades developed by the Lawrence Hall of Science.

I am also proud to announce our new security doors have been installed! The safety initiative began during the 2016-2017 school year with the installation of the gates in the school yard. During the 2017-2018 school year, our amazing students, parents and staff raised funds for the security upgrades which included new doors for the front of our building. With our new video surveillance and doors, we are proud to be able to provide a safer environment for our students.

We want to thank our school parents, our parish family and the Oakland Diocese for their unwavering support for this initiative. We also want to give a special thank you to Resti Zaballos and his amazing team at R. Zaballos & Sons for making this dream a reality. We could not have achieved this dream without you all!

We hope you will join us in the many events we have planned this year!

Jennifer Diaz
