OUR MISSION / NUESTRA MISION:
Inspired by the saints, we aspire to become authentic missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

Inspirados por los santos, aspiramos a convertirnos en auténticos discípulos misioneros. De Jesucristo.

VISION STATEMENT / NUESTRA VISION:
The Church of All Saints in Hayward is the voice, hands, and feet of Christ, following in the steps of all the Saints. As a community, we answer the call and say YES to God.

La iglesia de Todos los Santos en Hayward es la voz, las manos y los pies de Cristo, siguiendo los pasos de todos los Santos. Como comunidad, respondemos el llamado y decimos Sí a Dios.
Welcome to the All Saints bulletin. I am glad you have chosen to spend a few moments looking around, discovering our Church family. As I describe All Saints to people, I use words ‘community’ and ‘familia.’

We are a group of people committed to following Jesus and making him known in Hayward and beyond. That means we pray to him with vigor and joy. That means we encourage a culture of prayer in church and throughout life. That means we work together and develop a culture of teamwork. That means we love people outside the church through generosity, invitation, and compassion. That means we develop a culture of active discipleship.

Our hope is that all people will feel loved and welcomed at All Saints. And once here, we pray that you will meet God and as a result of meeting God, give your lives to Jesus Christ. We want that for you. Come as you are. Check us out, but more importantly, seek the truth of God that can only be known when one knows Jesus.

While you are browsing our website or reading our bulletin, you will learn about our programs and get a glimpse of who we are, but only a glimpse. To fully understand us, come to one of our masses and feel the up-close, in-person fellowship that comes when people share time together at the table of the Lord, listening to his Word and knowing the Holy Spirit is present. Enjoy the bulletin, then come. We’d love to meet you and know you.

Rev. Ramon Gomez, Pastor

Bienvenido al boletín de Todos los Santos. Me alegra que hayas elegido pasar unos momentos mirando a tu alrededor, descubriendo nuestra familia de la Iglesia de Todos Los Santos. Cuando describo a Todos los Santos a las personas, uso las palabras “comunidad” y “familia”.

Somos un grupo de personas comprometidas con seguir a Jesús y darle a conocer en Hayward y más allá. Eso significa que le rezamos con vigor y alegría. Eso significa que fomentamos una cultura de oración en la iglesia y durante toda la vida. Eso significa que trabajamos juntos y desarrollamos una cultura de trabajo en equipo. Eso significa que amamos a las personas fuera de la iglesia a través de la generosidad, la invitación y la compasión. Eso significa que desarrollamos una cultura de discipulado activo.

Nuestra esperanza es que todas las personas se sientan amadas y bienvenidas en All Saints. Y una vez aquí, oramos para que te encuentres con Dios y, como resultado de conocer a Dios, le des tus vidas a Jesucristo. Queremos eso para ti. Ven tal como eres. Miranos, pero lo más importante, busca la verdad de Dios que solo se puede conocer cuando uno conoce a Jesús.

Mientras navega por nuestro sitio web o lee nuestro boletín, aprenderá acerca de nuestros programas y podrá ver quiénes somos, pero solo un vistazo. Para comprenderlos completamente, ven a una de nuestras misas y siente la comunión cercana y en persona que se produce cuando las personas comparten tiempo juntas en la mesa del Señor, escuchando su Palabra y sabiendo que el Espíritu Santo está presente. Disfruta el boletín o el sitio web, luego ven. Nos encantaría conocerte y conocerte.
Becoming Attentive Travelers

Jesus, on the road to Jerusalem, passes through the town of Jericho. His intention was to move right through, yet when he catches sight of Zacchaeus, he stops and changes plans. Jesus was on the move, yet not so obsessed with plans and objectives that he didn’t notice the needy soul of Zacchaeus peering down upon him from a sycamore tree.

Part of being an apostle of Christ is having a heart that’s always attuned to the inspirations of the Holy Spirit. We can’t be so consumed with our good fortunes that we miss opportunities to offer Christ’s salvation to those around us.

Zacchaeus was a public sinner and a publican who, as we know, were the hated tax collectors and collaborators of the Romans. Rather than a person to visit he was, for the Jews, someone to be avoided. Not for Jesus! Our Lord came to seek and save the lost. And Zacchaeus wanted to be found. He was so driven to see Jesus, he made himself look ridiculous by climbing a tree, admitting to his short stature and curiosity.

How many souls along our path are showing their unquenchable thirst to discover Jesus and, even more, to be discovered by him. While amassing worldly riches, they realize that their deep hunger can only be satisfied by something else. Only spiritual things can satiate the Spirit. Let’s be willing to go off-road and facilitate these encounters with Jesus—of course, after we ourselves have been encountered by him.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection
What am I doing to find or to be found by Jesus Christ in my daily life?
What am I doing each day to help others find or be found by Jesus Christ?

[Jesus said to Zacchaeus,] “For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.”
Luke 19:10

Jesús, en el camino a Jerusalén, pasa por el pueblo de Jericó. Su intención era avanzar, pero cuando ve a Zaccho, se detiene y cambia de planes. Jesús estaba en movimiento, pero no tan obsesionado con los planes y objetivos que no notó el alma necesitada de Zaccho que lo miraba desde un árbol de sicomoro. Parte de ser un apóstol de Cristo es tener un corazón que siempre esté en sintonía con las inspiraciones del Espíritu Santo. No podemos estar tan consumidos con nuestra buena fortuna que perdemos oportunidades para ofrecer la salvación de Cristo a quienes nos rodean. Zaccho era un pecador público y un publicano que, como sabemos, eran los odiados recaudadores de impuestos y colaboradores de los romanos. En lugar de una persona para visitar, era, para los judíos, alguien a quien evitar. ¿No para Jesús! Nuestro Señor vino a buscar y salvar a los perdidos. Y Zaccho quería ser encontrado. Estaba tan motivado por ver a Jesús, que se hizo ver ridículo al trepar a un árbol, admitiendo su baja estatura y curiosidad. Cuántas almas a lo largo de nuestro camino muestran su sed insaciable de descubrir a Jesús y, aún más, de ser descubiertos por él. Mientras acumulan riquezas mundanas, se dan cuenta de que su hambre profunda solo puede ser satisfecha por otra cosa. Solo las cosas espirituales pueden saciar al Espíritu. Estaremos dispuestos a salir de la carretera y facilitar estos encuentros con Jesús, por supuesto, después de que él nos haya encontrado.

Remember in Prayer / Recordar en Oración

Members of our faith community who are ill, including:

- Gabriel Arellano
- Frank Cabrera
- Milagro Torres

Also members of our faith community who have died, including:

- Angeli Aviado
- Manuela Juarez
- Guillermo Morales
In just a few short days, our soon to be graduates will embark on their much anticipated 8th grade retreat. This is a special time of spiritual awareness and preparation for our students as they make the transition from middle school into high school. Along with a focus on some of the hopes and fears they may have, they will share memories that will last a lifetime, and experience the love of Jesus through self discovery and meaningful conversations in a fun and safe environment.

We ask you to pray for our students and their teachers. Pray our middle school students grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord, and invite God to speak peace over their hearts and minds. Ask God to fill them with much joy and to teach them to trust Him with all of their hearts.
Black Catholic History Month

The National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus (NBCCC) of the United States voted on Tuesday, July 24, 1990 while meeting in convention at Fordham University in New York, to establish November as BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH. The reason behind the selection of the month of November was the number of important dates to Catholics of African descent that fell within this month.

- Nov. 1 All Saints Day: an opportunity to review the lives of the hundreds of Saints of African descent in the first 300 years of the Church.
- Nov. 2 All Souls Day: a time to remember all those Africans lost to cruel treatment in the Middle Passage crossing of the Atlantic Ocean.
- Nov. 3 Martin de Porres became the first black American saint. He was canonized by Pope John XXIII on May 16, 1962. Throughout his life, St. Martin de Porres exemplified God’s love for all people, regardless of their level in society.
- Nov. 13 The birth of St. Augustine in 354 A.D., the first Doctor of the Church from North Africa.
- Nov. 20 The death of Zumbi of Palmares in Brazil, South American founder of a free state for Blacks.

The first celebration of Black Catholic History Month began in November of 1990 in various cities in the United States with the celebration of St. Martin de Porres Feast day. The liturgy celebrated the 350th anniversary of St. Martin’s transition from this life to eternal life. In Detroit on this day in 1990, Archbishop Adam Maida, the local Archbishop, was the celebrant for the Mass. Also present was the President of the NBCCC, Bro. Roy Smith, OSC. The Mass was held at St. Anthony Church.

In the world today there are 200 million people of African descent in the Roman Catholic Church throughout the world.
