OUR MISSION / NUESTRA MISION:
Inspired by the saints, we aspire to become authentic missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

INSPIRADOS por los santos, aspiramos a convertirnos en auténticos discípulos misioneros. De Jesucristo.

VISION STATEMENT / NUESTRA VISION:
The Church of All Saints in Hayward is the voice, hands, and feet of Christ, following in the steps of all the Saints. As a community, we answer the call and say YES to God.

La iglesia de Todos los Santos en Hayward es la voz, las manos y los pies de Cristo, siguiendo los pasos de todos los Santos. Como comunidad, respondemos el llamado y decimos Sí a Dios.
Welcome to the All Saints bulletin. I am glad you have chosen to spend a few moments looking around, discovering our Church family. As I describe All Saints to people, I use words ‘community’ and ‘family.’

We are a group of people committed to following Jesus and making him known in Hayward and beyond. That means we pray to him with vigor and joy. That means we encourage a culture of prayer in church and throughout life. That means we work together and develop a culture of teamwork. That means we love people outside the church through generosity, invitation, and compassion. That means we develop a culture of active discipleship.

Our hope is that all people will feel loved and welcomed at All Saints. And once here, we pray that you will meet God and as a result of meeting God, give your lives to Jesus Christ. We want that for you. Come as you are. Check us out, but more importantly, seek the truth of God that can only be known when one knows Jesus.

While you are browsing our website or reading our bulletin, you will learn about our programs and get a glimpse of who we are, but only a glimpse. To fully understand us, come to one of our masses and feel the up-close, in-person fellowship that comes when people share time together at the table of the Lord, listening to his Word and knowing the Holy Spirit is present. Enjoy the bulletin, then come. We’d love to meet you and know you.

Rev. Ramon Gomez, Pastor

Bienvenido al boletín de Todos los Santos. Me alegra que hayas elegido pasar unos momentos mirando a tu alrededor, descubriendo nuestra familia de la Iglesia de Todos Los Santos. Cuando describo a Todos los Santos a las personas, uso las palabras “comunidad” y “familia”.

Somos un grupo de personas comprometidas con seguir a Jesús y darle a conocer en Hayward y más allá. Eso significa que le rezamos con vigor y alegría. Eso significa que fomentamos una cultura de oración en la iglesia y durante toda la vida. Eso significa que trabajamos juntos y desarrollamos una cultura de trabajo en equipo. Eso significa que amamos a las personas fuera de la iglesia a través de la generosidad, la invitación y la compasión. Eso significa que desarrollamos una cultura de discipulado activo.

Nuestra esperanza es que todas las personas se sientan amadas y bienvenidas en All Saints. Y una vez aquí, oramos para que te encuentres con Dios y, como resultado de conocer a Dios, le des tus vidas a Jesucristo. Queremos eso para ti. Ven tal como eres. Miranos, pero lo más importante, busca la verdad de Dios que solo se puede conocer cuando uno conoce a Jesús.

Mientras navega por nuestro sitio web o lee nuestro boletín, aprenderá acerca de nuestros programas y podrá ver quiénes somos, pero solo un vistazo. Para comprendernos completamente, ven a una de nuestras misas y siente la comunidad cercana y en persona que se produce cuando las personas comparten tiempo juntas en la mesa del Señor, escuchando su Palabra y sabiendo que el Espíritu Santo está presente. Disfruta el boletín o el sitio web, luego ven. Nos encantaría conocerte y conocerte.

HE TOOK BREAD, SAID THE BLESSING, BROKE IT, AND GAVE IT TO THEM.
WITH THAT THEIR EYES WERE OPENED AND THEY RECOGNIZED HIM.
LUKE 24:30-31
I’ll Walk You Home

It was a very simple encounter. Two people, probably husband and wife, on their way home from Jerusalem to a neighboring village, are joined by a lone traveler walking on the same path. The couple was downcast for some reason, and the lone traveler showed interest and concern. It was nothing out of the ordinary, just simple human interest. However, it’s often just such an unexpected situation that becomes a profound event of God.

Jesus was talking beside them, explaining their sacred writings, and they did not recognize him. What would it take for them to realize the identity of their companion? As he appeared to continue his journey, they offered him hospitality: “Stay with us” (Luke 24:29). Though they didn’t understand who he was or everything he had said to them, their hearts were open to him and so he stayed. “At table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them” (Luke 24:30). That did it! Now they knew. “He was made known to them in the breaking of bread” (Luke 24:35).

This is another moving story about the past and the present. How often we fail to recognize Jesus in our midst. He is with us in the very ordinary events of life, like walking home or preparing a meal. He is there even in our misunderstandings and disappointments. When we realize this, our hearts burn within us. We begin to see that the entire world is a place of encounter. Every human action holds the possibility of revelation.

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection
• Where in your life do you meet Jesus?
• Where do you bring Jesus to others?

Fue un encuentro muy simple. A dos personas, probablemente marido y mujer, en su camino de regreso de Jerusalén a una aldea vecina, se les une un viajero solitario que camina por el mismo camino. La pareja estaba abatida por alguna razón, y el viajero solitario mostró interés y preocupación. No era nada fuera de lo común, solo un simple interés humano. Sin embargo, a menudo es una situación tan inesperada que se convierte en un evento profundo de Dios. Jesús estaba hablando a su lado, explicando sus escritos sagrados, y no lo reconocieron. ¿Qué les tomaría darse cuenta de la identidad de su compañero? Cuando parecía continuar su viaje, le ofrecieron hospitalidad: “Quédate con nosotros” (Lucas 24:29). Aunque no entendieron quién era o todo lo que les había dicho, sus corazones estaban abiertos a él y por eso se quedó. “En la mesa, tomó pan, dijo la bendición, lo partió y se los dio” (Lucas 24:30). ¡Eso lo hizo! Ahora lo sabían. “Se les dio a conocer al partir el pan” (Lucas 24:35). Esta es otra historia conmovedora sobre el pasado y el presente. ¿Cuán a menudo no reconocemos a Jesús en medio de nosotros? Él está con nosotros en los eventos cotidianos de la vida, como caminar a casa o preparar una comida. Él está allí incluso en nuestros malentendidos y decepciones. Cuando nos damos cuenta de esto, nuestros corazones arden dentro de nosotros. Comenzamos a ver que el mundo entero es un lugar de encuentro. Toda acción humana tiene la posibilidad de revelación.
In our First Reading Peter begins preaching in Jerusalem, interpreting Jesus’ Resurrection as the fulfillment of passages from the Old Testament.

Our Second Reading reminds us that Jesus saved us from our sins by shedding his precious blood on the cross.

“And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight.”
Please note: All events/meetings are cancelled until further notice

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen.

Paul J. Kim is one of the most sought after Catholic youth speakers in America. The way he presents is a rare gift to witness and has impacted people of all ages in 45 states & several countries over the past decade. Paul utilizes music, beatboxing, comedy, and inspirational talks to communicate the Gospel message of Christ (to over 30,000 people a year) in a way that is engaging, entertaining, and altogether life-changing.

His background includes a bachelor’s degree in Philosophy (Franciscan Univ. of Steubenville), a master’s degree in Marriage and Family Therapy (Hope Int’l Univ), and religious formation with the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal (NYC). In his free time, he enjoys long walks on the beach, surfing, and speaking to strangers in random accents. He resides in Southern California with his lovely wife and three children.
Dear Padre,

Why couldn’t the disciples recognize Jesus after the resurrection? Do you think we would recognize Jesus if he came back today?

Before the resurrection, Jesus likely would have suffered the ravages of illness and lack of proper nutrition that all the people of his time were subject to. After the resurrection, Jesus showed he was exalted with the very power of God. Even his physical appearance had changed.

In view of his glorified appearance, the disciples were able to recognize Jesus with the aid of his marks of the passion (John 20:20). No one would go to the extreme of putting nails through his own hands and feet and thrust a spear into his side to pretend he was Jesus! He bore those marks, so he had to be the Lord.

Another purpose of showing his disciples his glorified body was to assure them we would undergo a similar glorification. In the resurrection we shall be completely changed and perfected in our humanity (1 Corinthians 15:52).

We are sometimes slow to recognize our Lord in the ways he indicated he would be with us today: in the Eucharist (John 6:53); in the poor (Matthew 25:40); in his body, the Church (1 Corinthians 12:12). Coming to recognize him among us in these ways today will ensure we are more like him in our resurrection.

WORD FROM Pope Francis

We have all had difficult moments in life, dark moments in which we walked in sadness, pensive, without horizons, with only a wall before us. And Jesus is always beside us to give us hope, to warm our hearts and to say: “Go ahead, I am with you. Go ahead.”

—GENERAL AUDIENCE, MAY 24, 2017
