

SHENANDOAH RUN

"Folk Music With A Kick!"

Coming Soon to the FLC

Formed in 2011, Shenandoah Run is a 9-piece, DC-based band with a vision—to keep folk music alive and fresh! Fidelity to this vision has been key to their success. Their performances pay tribute to vintage Americana and contemporary folk music, with a little country thrown into the mix. Their top-notch musicianship and soaring harmonies lend a fresh voice to classic and contemporary folk and often entice audiences to join in for that irresistible sing-along.

Shenandoah Run is comprised of founder Bob Melissinos (vocals and guitar), Jill Nelson (vocals and percussion), Henry Milne (vocals and guitar), Renee Moyer (vocals and percussion), Jim Thorne (vocals, guitar, mandolin and flute), Pam Ferguson (vocals and fiddle), Joe Dickey (banjo), John Werntz (bass) and Robert Burleson (lead guitar). With a winning blend of voices and instruments, their performances attract large, often "sold out" audiences. For events such as summer concert series, SR regularly attracts some of the largest audiences the venues have experienced.

Shenandoah Run has become a favorite at a variety of venues in the Greater Washington metropolitan area and beyond. Some of these venues include:

Jammin Java in Vienna (10 times)
Avalon Theatre in Easton (3 times)
Creative Cauldron in Falls Church (12 times)
Maryland Hall in Annapolis (4 times)
The Mansion at the Strathmore
The AMP by Strathmore (2 times)
Rams Head On Stage (2 times)
World Folk Music Association Showcase (4 times)
Washington Folk Festival (4 times)
Ashby Ponds Senior Living Community (2 times)
Greenspring Senior Living Community
And many others.....
