As Christians, should we be interested in racial justice?

Your answer could be a simple, “Absolutely!”

Or it might be something like this:

“This doesn’t involve me. I’m not prejudiced. I have several Black friends. All lives matter. I’ve heard enough about racial issues. I haven’t been a part of this national sin of racism. Slavery was resolved over 100 years ago.”

Either way, please take 90 minutes and join us at 9:30am Saturday, January 30, for a RACIAL JUSTICE REFLECTION
