Sincere Goodbye from Fr. Chris... I've been able to serve this parish as pastor for the past five years. Before that, I served as associate pastor for a year. I was ordained a deacon here and served in that ministry for a summer. I even did my seminary internship year here. Summerside - St. Paul's - has become my home. In that time, I was able to share with you in some small way in the parish's mission to work for the salvation of souls. I got to know many people over the years, made many friends, and I will miss you. But as the Bishop said, we need a "young" Canon lawyer and so I am leaving to take on a new service for the Church and the Diocese of Charlottetown. Thank you for everything and please keep me, your new pastor, and the parish in your prayers. – Fr. Chris
