THEME: HELP EACH OTHER

Each of us is our brother's (and sister's) keeper. Today we hear God calling us to be responsible for each other. No one should be left on their own to fail; we are called to pick each other up, to help each other out. This Labor Day weekend, when we honor all those who work to do the things that contribute to society, whether in a factory, on a farm, in an office, at home, or wherever it may be, let us resolve to work together in building the kingdom of God.

- Ezekiel 33:7-9 We are responsible for one another and must try to lead each other in the path of righteousness.
- Romans 13:8-10 We are bound by the law of love.
- Matthew 18:15-20 Jesus is present in our midst wherever two or three are gathered in his name.

VOCATIONS

Knowing what we are created for also means knowing what we are not created for. Deceiving ourselves to believe that our vocations are not from God would be utter foolishness, and leave us unfulfilled. If God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Father Andrew Lauricella at 847-5535.

EDUCATIONAL CORNER

Understanding and Planning Catholic Funerals

Catholic funerals express the Christian hope in eternal life and the resurrection of the body on the last day. Every component of Catholic funeral rites should express these fundamental beliefs and hopes. Instead of what sometimes is called "a celebration of life," a funeral is really a privileged opportunity to return to God the gift of the deceased, hoping to usher them into paradise with the aid of our prayers. Our love for the departed is expressed after death, above all else, in our prayer for them.

Whenever possible, the Church recommends that the family should be involved in planning the funeral rites — from choices of texts and readings to music and liturgical ministers. Parish staff should guide them through this process. This guide is meant to explain Catholic funeral rites and give guidance at the time of a loved one's death.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Immaculate Conception Religious Education program will begin this year on October 4th. Registration is now being accepted and you may register online at icchsc.org. If you prefer, registration forms may be mailed out to you or pick one up in the back of the church. Please make your check payable to ICC Religious Education and mail it back to the church or you may drop it in the parish collection basket.

This year's classes will be a hybrid, with students receiving assignments from their teachers and the classes meeting once a month, decided by the teacher with social distancing practices being observed. Students will be meeting in the Duffy Center or Church to observe social distancing.

If you have any questions, you may call or email Ellen Henning, our Religious Education Coordinator at 992-3933 ext. 3 or www.religiousedicc@gmail.com.

Registration deadline is September 13th.

FAMILY OF FAMILIES

We will be starting, once again, our Family of Families program starting September 16th in the Duffy Center from 9:30 AM until 11:00 AM. We will continue to stay in the Duffy Center this year in order to practice social distancing. Child care will be provided for children 2 years and up, with the children wearing masks.

This fall we will be starting with Turning Point: A Study of the Gospel of John which is a DVD series with Allen Hunt. Eight encounters with Jesus that will change your life! We will spend 8 weeks on this. The workbook is $12.95 and available at Dynamic Catholic or you can call (859) 980-7900 to order. The website is dynamiccatholic.com/turning-point-workbook.
