THEME: SEEK THE LORD

“Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near,” Isaiah counsels us in the first words from today’s reading. We come together today to seek the Lord in word and sacrament, knowing that he can be found in scripture, in the Eucharist, and in each other. We call to him now, lifting our voices in song and prayer, aware of his closeness as we are gathered two or more in his name.

Isaiah 55:6-9 The ways and thoughts of God are above our own.
Philippians 1:20c-27a St. Paul rejoices that to live is Christ and to die is to gain.
Matthew 20:1-16a “The last will be first, and the first will be last.”

EDUCATIONAL CORNER

Understanding and Planning Catholic Funerals Burial or Cremation?

One of the first decisions to be made is whether the deceased will be buried or cremated. The Church's tradition prefers burial over cremation. However, cremation is allowed, so long as this option is not chosen to express anything contrary to the hope in the resurrection of the body. More and more families are opting for cremation today with hopes to decrease funeral expenses.

In either case, a place of burial needs to be chosen. Bodies are to be disposed of in a fitting and dignified way, consonant with the human dignity that should be afforded everyone, as we are made in the image of God.

Cremains must be buried — not placed in the home, spread on land or at sea, etc. This need not be only in a cemetery grave, but perhaps a parish columbarium — or niches, akin to mausoleums. Burial at sea is also permitted, so long as the body or cremains are in a sealed container. (not spread openly).

In cases of burial, choices regarding attire should recall the respect to be shown toward the body. Consideration should be given to display some Christian symbols in or near the casket at the time of a wake or to be buried with the deceased, such as a crucifix, rosary or Bible.

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS!

We would like to thank Premier Debris Removal & Excavating Service for advertising in our Parish Bulletin. Please show your support for your parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin every week without them, and right now they need your help more than ever. Please encourage and remind others to show their support and shop local during these difficult times.

ROSARY AT HOLY SPIRIT CHURCH

Please join us on Monday evenings at 7:00 PM in front of the Church to pray the Rosary. Our intentions will be healing for our Nation and for the end to the global pandemic. Please join us and don't forget your mask.
