THEME: YOU HAVE BECOME A NEW CREATION AND HAVE CLOTHED YOURSELF IN JESUS

At our baptism we were told, "You have become a new creation and have clothed yourself in Christ." Each Sunday we come here a new creation, transformed, even if we're not conscious of it. Baptism has created us anew, has given us new life. No matter what we may be wearing, we are clothed in Christ. In what we do and in what others see, we hope to show that we have put on Christ. On this feast of the Baptism of the Lord, let us appreciate the new creation we have become.

Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7 Here is my servant.
Psalm 29 "The Lord will bless his people with peace."
Acts 10:34-38 God anointed Jesus with the Holy Spirit and power.
Mark 1:7-11 The Spirit of God descends like a dove.

"PLEASE REMEMBER IMMACULATE CONCEPTION PARISH IN YOUR WILL"

BISHOP MICHAEL WILLIAM FISHER,
15th Bishop of the Diocese of Buffalo

Bishop Fisher, age 62, was born and raised in Baltimore, where he played Little League baseball, wrestled, and worked as a paperboy for The Baltimore Sun. He attended the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute high school, and received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Accounting at the University of Maryland in 1984. After feeling compelled to discern a vocation to the priesthood, he entered seminary at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland in 1986. He was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Washington in 1990, and his parish assignments have included Sacred Heart parish in La Plata, Holy Family parish in Hillcrest Heights, and St. John Neumann in Gaithersburg. He was named a Chaplain to His Holiness, a distinction that comes with the title of "Monsignor," in 2005. Later that year, he was appointed Vicar General for the Apostolates, where he oversaw the archdiocesan ministries for education, ethnic ministries, social justice and service, parish life and youth ministry. In 2006 Cardinal Donald Wuerl appointed him Vicar for Clergy and Secretary for Ministerial Leadership, a position he has held for the last twelve years. In this role, Bishop Fisher oversees the recruitment, formation and care of the clergy for the archdiocese.

He was named an auxiliary bishop for the Archdiocese of Washington by Pope Francis on June 8, 2018 and ordained to the episcopate on June 29, 2018 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Over his nearly thirty years in priestly ministry Bishop Fisher has served on various boards and committees of the archdiocese, including, College of Consultors, Priest Council, Administrative Board, Priest Retirement Board, Clergy Personnel Board, Deacon Review Board, Deacon Council, Needy Parish Committee, Forward in Faith Committee. He also serves as an Ecclesiastical Counselor to the Centesimus Annus Pro Pontifice Foundation. Much of Bishop Fisher's ministry has involved the continuing education of priests, particularly in aiding new pastors in their roles and the planning and implementation of ongoing clergy training via convocations and retreats.

On December 1, 2020, Pope Francis appointed Bishop Michael William Fisher, Auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Washington, as the 15th Bishop of Buffalo.

Bishop Fisher's installation will take place on Friday, January 15, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. in the Cathedral of Saint Joseph in Buffalo. His Eminence Timothy Cardinal Dolan, Metropolitan Archbishop of New York, will preside and Archbishop Christophe Pierre, Apostolic Nuncio to the United States, will be in attendance.

BISHOP FISHER'S COAT OF ARMS

The colors, gold (or) and red (gules) are from the arms of His Eminence, Donald Cardinal Wuerl, the Archbishop of Washington, Bishop Fisher's principal consecrator, and under whom he will serve as auxiliary bishop. The colors are used also in the arms of James Cardinal Hickey under whom the Bishop served as a priest. They are also associated with some Fisher coats of arms.

The line embattled that separates the two fields is taken from the tower embattled in the coat of arms of Cardinal Wuerl.

The cross bottony, found in the arms and flag of Maryland as the Calvert Cross, alludes to the Bishop's Maryland heritage. The crosses here are red, to refer to the red cross on the tower in the arms of Cardinal Wuerl. The three crosses are a symbol of the Holy Trinity.

The lion of Saint Mark is a tribute to Bishop Fisher's patron saint. It refers also to the lion in the arms of Cardinal Hickey, who ordained him to the diaconate and priesthood.

The motto is based on Psalm 25:10, "His ways are faithfulness and love."

IN GOD'S ETERNAL REST

We offer our fervent prayers for the repose of the soul of:
Paul Roeder
