In place of a Fall Festival...

After meeting and sharing with parishioners about COVID precautions, we have decided on changes to the Fall Festival. This year we will celebrate with an outdoor Mass, weather permitting, on Sunday, September 19, 2021 at 10:30 am.

We will serve hotdogs, rootbeer floats, water and coffee after Mass. A "Free Will" donation will be appreciated. We hope you can join us!

Ripple Effects: A Survivor and Her Daughter

A Zoom Presentation for Victim/Survivors of Clergy Sexual Abuse. Monday, August 23, 6:30 - 8 p.m., Zoom: Join clerical sexual abuse survivor, Donna Vondenbosch, and her daughter Jerri von den Bosch, as they discuss their experiences and share stories on the impact trauma has had on themselves and their family, and their journey as they heal together.

HAVE SOMETHING TO SHARE IN THE BULLETIN? E-mail the Parish Office. Deadline is Tuesdays, before 12 noon.

THE PRIVILEGED ONE

Each year on August, 15th, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary into heaven. This normally is a Holy Day of Obligation for Latin Rite Catholics (that's us) which we would be obliged to attend Holy Mass. Conveniently, this year it falls on a Sunday. What is so special about what we celebrate on this day that would motivate the Church to oblige Catholics to attend Mass?

We need to first make it clear that having the obligation to attend Mass for such an occasion is really an enormous privilege because it helps increase our knowledge and love of the Lord in light of His wonderful plan of salvation for us. This is precisely what we get a greater glimpse of when we ponder and celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary into heaven.

What exactly is the Assumption of Mary? Here is what the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "Finally the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen over all things, so that she might be the more fully conformed to her son, the Lord of lords and conqueror of sin and death" (CCC 966; emphasis mine).

Not only was Mary preserved from the stain of original sin from the moment of her conception, but even at the end of her life here on earth Jesus granted her a unique participation in His triumph over death. God did not permit her body to undergo corruption; rather, body and soul united, she was assumed into heaven. Therefore, Mary participates in a unique way in Jesus' conquering of both sin (via the Immaculate Conception) and death (via the Assumption).

Although the blessings to Mary are unique to her alone, the Assumption of Mary into heaven foreshadows for all the faithful God's ultimate plan for us. Unless Jesus comes again within the next 100 years or so, we will all experience death in the ordinary way (separation of body and soul). Still, it is our great joy as Christians to proclaim in faith that God will raise our bodies from the dead and unite them again to our souls that we might live in a new and glorified state with God forever in heaven, just like Mary is enjoying now. Therefore, as we celebrate the Assumption of Mary into heaven, our hearts rightfully look forward in hope for God's plan of salvation to be fulfilled for us.

Mary, assumed into heaven and Queen of heaven and earth, pray for us!

God bless you and know of my prayers for you!

Sincerely,
Fr. Stiles

Dressed for the King Jesus

This is a friendly reminder to all that when we come to Mass, it is important for us to dress appropriately. If we were meeting with the President of the United States or with the Pope, we would make sure that we were dressed in a respectful and dignified manner. How much more ought we to be considerate of what we wear to Mass where we come before our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, King of the universe! Without intending to establish a formal dress code, here are a few guidelines:

1. Immodest clothing (too revealing) is never appropriate.
2. Our clothing ought to reflect the dignity of the Holy Mass. Therefore, overly casual clothing is not fitting for such an occasion as the Mass.
3. How I dress outwardly often conveys what I believe inwardly about the importance of the Mass. On the other hand, dressing in a dignified manner for Mass helps remind me that what am I doing (the Mass) is something important.

Please, prayerfully consider these principles and adjust your habits of dress if necessary. Thank you.
