

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER—MAY 12, 2019

First Reading — Acts 13:14, 43-52

<sup>14</sup> ... but they passed on from Perga and came to Antioch of Pisidia. And on the sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. ...

<sup>43</sup> And when the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup> The next sabbath almost the whole city gathered together to hear the word of God. <sup>45</sup> But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted what was spoken by Paul, and reviled him. <sup>46</sup> And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup> For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, 'I have set you to be a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.'"

<sup>48</sup> And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of God; and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. <sup>49</sup> And the word of the Lord spread throughout all the region. <sup>50</sup> But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, and stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district. <sup>51</sup> But they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and went to Iconium. <sup>52</sup> And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Second Reading — Revelation 7:9, 14-17

<sup>9</sup> After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no man could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, ...

<sup>14</sup> I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup>

Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night within his temple; and he who sits upon the throne will shelter them with his presence. <sup>16</sup> They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. <sup>17</sup> For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Gospel Reading — John 10:27-30

<sup>27</sup> My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; <sup>28</sup> and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. <sup>29</sup> My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. <sup>30</sup> I and the Father are one."

INVITATION TO PRAY

Pause for a few moments of silence and enter more deeply into the presence of God...

Proclaim the Scriptures out loud

As you listen to the scriptures be attentive to a word, a phrase, a question, an image, or a feeling that emerges. Reflect on this quietly or share it aloud.

INVITATION TO REFLECT

INVITATION TO GROUP SHARING

First Reading — Acts 13:14, 43-52

1. What do you think Paul and Barnabas meant by urging them “to continue in the grace of God”?
2. What role did the Word of God play in this conversion process?
3. What would it take for the Word of God to spread throughout all of your region?

Second Reading — Revelation 5:11-14

4. What principles or conditions for unity do you discover in this passage?

Gospel Reading — John 10:27-30

5. Why do you think Jesus uses the analogy of sheep to describe us, his followers? How sheep-like are you?
6. What have you learned about listening to his voice, and following him?
7. What is the relationship between following Christ and dwelling in unity with others?

INVITATION TO ACT

Determine a specific action (individual or group) that flows from your sharing. When choosing an individual action, determine what you will do and share it with the group. When choosing a group action, determine who will take responsibility for different aspects of the action. These should be your primary considerations.

CLOSING INVITATION TO PRAY

Give thanks to God (aloud or silently) for new insights, for desires awakened, for directions clarified, for the gift of one another's openness and sensitivity. Conclude with a final prayer.
