Today we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost. Fifty days have passed since the Resurrection of Our Lord. We now meet the Apostles waiting for the coming of the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete. It is the birthday of the Church.

In our own time, we face a similar phenomenon. We have begun a journey that will lead us to a new birthday, the establishment of a new parish. Just as the Apostles came together in prayer prior to receiving the Holy Spirit, we too must come together in a prayerful spirit. Our faith is centered on the Paschal mystery. By dying, Jesus destroyed death but it is in rising that He won the final victory. So too will we experience the “death” of something that each of us loves dearly. But as St. Paul told us, you cannot say “I belong to Paul or I belong to Apollos.” We should not be saying, “I belong to St. Bartholomew or I belong to St. Bernadette or I belong to St. Gerard Majella or I belong to North American Martyrs or I belong to St. Susanna.” Just as Paul asserted, we all belong to Christ.

As we move forward, there will be anxiety and angst. That is natural and to be expected during times of change. But we have to believe that the Holy Spirit will lead us just as the Apostles were led on the first Pentecost. We will celebrate a new Pentecost and, with the help of God, we will rise as a strong and vibrant witness to Jesus Christ. After all, that is our mission. Our baptismal call is not to preserve certain buildings or traditions or practices but to make the Gospel message known to a world that desperately needs to hear it, even if the world thinks otherwise. Go forth, emboldened by the Holy Spirit on this Pentecost and make disciples by the very tone of your life.

On Mission for the Church Alive

Receive the Holy Spirit – After his resurrection from the dead Jesus appears to his anxious Apostles and, knowing their fear and uncertainty, pours forth the Holy Spirit upon them and bestows his gift of peace. For the next forty days he promises that he will be with them always and that he will send the Advocate to be with them as they will be called to continue his work in the world. Finally, after ascending to heaven, Jesus sends forth his Spirit at Pentecost to fill the Apostles with confidence and courage in order to go out to all the world to tell the good news and grow the Church. As the On Mission for The Church Alive! initiative continues to unfold we are called to prayer for a new Pentecost in the Church of Pittsburgh. This new outpouring of the Holy Spirit can bestow the peace we seek in the midst of change and planning for the future. God’s Spirit can also fill us with the confidence and courage that all of us – clergy and faithful alike – will need to do our part to build up the Church and make it ever more alive! Parenting Pointers
"Each one heard them speaking in their own language" (Acts 2:6) June 9 is Pentecost Sunday when the apostles were understood by people who spoke different languages. The gift of "tongues" can be interpreted in many ways. Teach your child a word or phrase in another language this week.

Treasures from Our Tradition
Today we are at the fiftieth day of the Easter celebration: seven weeks of seven days, a week of weeks, now culminating in a festival fiftieth day. While the liturgical color of the Easter season is gold, on this last day we have red. For the first thousand years of the church, there were no firm rules for using colors. Only wealthy churches could afford a full array of colors, and most places used the best vestments, no matter the color, for the greatest feasts. The Church spelled out an exact plan for color, including red for Pentecost, only in 1570, but local differences held on until the 1800s.

Color experts tell us that red is a hot color, best used for fast-paced, upbeat, active experiences. It is hard to be neutral before red, as any matador will tell you. It invites commitment, draws you in. It is a stimulating color, engaging the eye, stirring hunger. It is the most fitting color for this day when we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit into our lives, a dynamic presence overturning neutrality in favor of passion and commitment.

My family and I would like to extend a sincere thank you to everyone for all of your kind support during this sad time for my family, with the loss of my mother. I especially would like to thank Fr. Al and Fr. Martin, Cindy, the Choir for making her service so beautiful. Thank you also to all St. Gerard's parishioners who helped in the church hall with setting up and tending to our guests at the luncheon, after the funeral.
