

Deacon's Beacons

January 9, 2019

“Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD:
though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red like crimson,
they shall become like wool.” Isaiah 1:18

The Prophet Isaiah tells us that a time will come when our sins will be washed away and all stain will be removed. Of course this is hundreds of years before the arrival of Jesus. Yet the people of Israel awaited the Savior. But their expectations were far different than the reality. And because Jesus did not meet their expectations, many did not believe and accept Him. They missed the point. Our sins are washed away, by His Blood. Through His crimson Blood, our souls have been made white as wool. Jesus fulfilled the prophecies. You just need to look with the eyes of faith.
