

Deacon's Beacons

October 17, 2019

"I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned." Matthew 12:36–37

When we speak, it has an impact on someone else. Whether that impact is good or bad will depend on how we speak. Just because you did not physically harm someone does not mean that you have not hurt them. Words can be used as weapons just as sticks and stones. The old saying, "Sticks and stones..." is not true. Words can hurt. Remember that before you speak in anger or in carelessness.
