

Deacon's Beacons

February 26, 2019

And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. Ephesians 2:1-3

Sin is a powerful thing. It will color your judgment, cloud your mind and draw you away from the truth. Yet we believe that we can sin without any effect. God forgives our sins and gives us the grace to move on. But sometimes we get mired in that sin and we will not seek forgiveness and reconciliation. Be cautious of this condition. You cannot know the damage of your sin while you are still in its midst.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
