For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Jeremiah 29:11

God wants only good for all of His children. But we have strayed from the right path and sin has entered the picture. Sin has distorted the glory of Creation and has caused evil things to exist. It is not and it never has been God's will that people should suffer. But that is the consequence of sin. However, the promises of God are of hope and peace and safety. We need to trust that God will see us through any trials or tribulations in this life. The promise does not mean that we will not have troubles. The promise means that all of this has a purpose and that purpose will bring goodness and hope.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
