

Deacon's Beacons

March 26, 2019

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.” John 3:16-17

This is possibly one of the most famous of all Scripture verses. Many will remember the rainbow haired guy at football games with the sign that read “John 3:16.” But the second part of this passage is arguably even more important. God did not send Jesus for condemnation but for salvation. The price of our sin was death but God chose to take that upon Himself so that we can be freed from it. That is how He shows His love for us. But we should not use that love as a license to do whatever we like. We have a responsibility to show respect for the great gift that God has given us.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike