

Deacon's Beacons

March 28, 2019

If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. James 1:5-6

Doubt is so very human. Even if we have strong faith, it is normal for us to doubt. And doubt is not really bad. If we do not doubt or question or discern, can we really say that we believe? Or have we just accepted the "party line" from someone else? We must examine and internalize what we believe. That is healthy and necessary. But when we believe, we must not doubt that God will do as He has promised. Study, discern, examine and then step out in true and solid faith.
