Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Hebrews 4:16

The Throne of Grace. What a wonderful name. It conjures images of a glowing beacon of hope for us. It is the fount of all mercy and the source of all grace. And grace is how we are enabled to live as we should. We cannot do it on our own. Anyone who thinks otherwise is either deluded or way too proud. Grace is how God offers us assistance as we walk. Accept the grace of God. Pray for grace. Seek grace any way you can.
