

Deacon's Beacons

In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. Ephesians 1:13-14

Some speak of being slain in the Spirit. Some talk about baptism in the Holy Spirit. But it is truly a function of faith. Faith is both a gift given through the grace of God and the way in which we enter the life of God. It is the movement of the Holy Spirit that guides us to investigate this story of faith. Without that movement, we would not be drawn into a life of faith. So, to say that the Holy Spirit is a result of our conversion would seem to be inaccurate. The Holy Spirit is, in fact, the reason for our conversion.
