

Deacon's Beacons

May 8, 2019

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:18-20

So that is why we continue even today to teach, to preach and to baptize. We are fulfilling the great Commission given by Jesus to His disciples and, by extension, to us. There is no other way that the Truth will be proclaimed in the world. By just looking at modern trends, we can clearly see that the world will go astray when left to its own devices. As the influence of faith and traditional values has lessened, we now see ideas and values coming forth that would never have been embraced by past generations. The world thinks that it has become "enlightened." But the truth of the matter is that the world has lost its most necessary light, the Gospel and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Pray for a re-evangelization of the world. But do not only pray. It is time to get to work, to teach, to preach and to baptize.

Resurrexit sicut dixit!

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike