Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. 2 Corinthians 3:17

We are promised freedom through Baptism as the children of God. It may seem to some that we are trading one yoke for another. After all, there are so many rules to follow, so many things to do or not do as the case may be. That is not slavery. That is a choice that we freely make to follow God and obey His commandments. Sin on the other hand becomes a cruel master, guiding our every actions away from God. Yes, we choose to sin but that is not the same. Sin colors our every decision and does not allow us to freely choose. It is the grace of God freely given to us that allows us to avoid sin. But it is a constant effort to avoid sin. So do not give up the fight. The Blood of Christ has purchased your freedom. Use it wisely.
