Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Ephesians 4:25

Why is it wrong to lie? Sometimes it seems like the courteous thing to do to avoid hurting someone's feelings. But it is always wrong simply because it is a violation of Natural Law. Natural Law states how certain gifts from God are to be used properly. Most times the discussion centers around sexual gifts. But we have received many gifts from God and there is an expectation under Natural Law as to how those gift should be used. The gift of speech is one of those. That gift was given to us for the express purpose of proclaiming the truth. If we use that gift to lie, we are misusing it. It really is as simple as that.
