Sing praises to the LORD, O you his saints, and give thanks to his holy name. Psalm 30:4

Many days, these reflections delve into the meaning of being spiritual. But unless you heed the words of this Psalm and praise God, what is the sense of trying to understand things better? For those who remember the Baltimore Catechism, the reason we were created is to love and serve God (in this world and be with Him in the next). The best way to serve God is to sing His praises to all that you meet. How to do that? Well, you can actually sing His praises and tell of His glory or you can choose to live your lives in a way that leaves no doubt about what you believe. Do not spend time telling people that you are a Christian. Show them by the very virtue of your lives.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
