All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. John 6:37

It will never be Jesus who turns away. It will always be we who turn. God is faithful and, if we choose to follow Him, He will welcome and embrace us. It does not matter where you may have strayed or for how long you may have been wandering. God will always welcome you back if you are sincere in your desire to be one with Him. In order to make that decision, you must spend time in prayer and do some very real soul searching. God wants all people to come to Him but you will not be able to follow Him half-heartedly. It will require a total commitment.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
