

Deacon's Beacons

June 25, 2019

For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. Matthew 6:14-15

We are forgiven to the degree that we forgive. Think about that for a moment. We want God to forgive our most grievous offenses but we are not willing to forgive a small slight by another. We are not really capable of loving and forgiving as God is but we must try our hardest to come as close as possible. We will always fall short. If we are asking for forgiveness, we have to strive to do better in forgiving. And remember that holding grudges only hurts you. It does nothing to the one with whom you are angry.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike