“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.” Matthew 5:8

In order to be in right relationship with God, we must work on ourselves. We must try to rid ourselves of sin, of jealousy, of any base emotions. If we want to make room for God in our hearts, all other “gods” must be put out. We do not always recognize that there are things that distract us from God. We must try to avoid that. We must also work to strengthen our prayer lives so that we can “multitask,” doing something and praying as we do it. That is the ideal.
