

Deacon's Beacons

July 11, 2019

For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.
Romans 15:4

Remember that when this was written there were no "New Testament" Scriptures. St. Paul's writings are the earliest of those Scriptures. Here he speaks of what we call the Old Testament or the Hebrew Scriptures. In those, we see the foretelling and foreshadowing of our salvation through Jesus Christ. If that is the case, how much more should we be able to believe because of the testimony of the New Testament writers?
