

Deacon's Beacons

July 23, 2019

“The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to be silent.” Exodus 14:14

This actually just precedes the First Reading for today. This is God's promise to eliminate the threat from the Egyptians to the Israelites. We should see in that the same promise that God will eliminate the problems of this world if we believe and pray. But in just the same way that God did not eliminate Egypt but only the threat, we must see in that promise that God will protect us from the world not that He will eliminate the world. We are still responsible for witnessing to the truth of God's word but we can do that in silent witness by the character of our lives. That demonstrates our faith in God and His promises.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike