

Deacon's Beacons

August 21, 2019

Jesus answered him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God." John 3:3

This passage provides controversy among different denominations. Some of the "Pentecostal" or Evangelical" denominations see a requirement as an adult to make a commitment to Christ to be saved. Most Christian denominations recognize that Baptism, even as an infant, is a process of being born again of water and the Spirit. That is the part of a passage that follows Nicodemus' questioning of Jesus. Yes, we all must make a commitment to Christ. Yes, we may be adults by the time we are spiritually mature enough to do that. But we are born again in the waters of Baptism.

Our Lady of Knock, pray for us.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
