

Deacon's Beacons

January 13, 2020

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where [I] am going you know the way.” Thomas said to him, “Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” John 14:1-6

I am just returning from the holidays and the death of my wife. I will try to pick up this ministry but there may be days that it will be too much. I chose this reading because it makes two promises to us. First, Jesus promises to prepare a place for us. Second, He promises to come and take us to that place. In faith, I believe that is what happened when my wife passed. I pray for the strength to continue on.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike