And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."
Acts 2:38

This passage could cause confusion. When compared to the end of Matthew's Gospel, it represents a different form of Baptism. In most denominations and in the Catholic Church in specific, Baptism is performed with water in the Trinitarian form, in other words, in the Name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Any other form is not considered to be valid. In any case, Baptism is our gateway into the life of the Church and the beginning of our walk as Christians.
