For

“Whoever desires to love life
and see good days,
let him keep his tongue from evil
and his lips from speaking deceit;
let him turn away from evil and do good;
let him seek peace and pursue it.” 1 Peter 3:10–11

We are being told that, in order to live a peaceful life, we should avoid sin but, more importantly, we must avoid evil talk. Sin sometimes only affects the one who has sinned but when we speak evil, we are usually injuring others. If you always speak in a way that is uplifting and wholesome, your speech will not hurt others. Live in peace with those around you and your days will be blessed.
